بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Introduction

All praise is due to Allaah, the Lord of Creation. May He send salaah and salaam upon the most noble of the Messengers, and upon his family and companions.

This book covers Mustalah al-Hadeeth (Hadeeth Terminology), the fourth in the series: Silsilah al-'Uloom al-Islamiyyah al-Muyassarah (Islaamic Sciences Made Easy). It follows the same general pattern as the series which, by Allaah's Favor, has been well-received by students of knowledge due to its simplified method. Work is also underway to produce more books in this format for the various Islaamic sciences, so as to allow students to learn from them with ease. I ask Allaah to graciously accept these works, and I also hope that the students of knowledge will not withhold their advice about the content and format of these books. May Allaah grant us all success in achieving good wherever it lies, and all praise is due to Allaah, Lord of the worlds.

The Science of Mustalah al-Hadeeth

Principles determining the acceptance or rejection of the sanad (chain) and matn (text) of a hadeeth

Subject, Purpose, and History

Subject: the sanad (chain) and matn (text) of a hadeeth

Purpose: knowing the sound hadeeth from the unsound

History and Origin:

1- The origin for studying the transmission of narrations is found in the Noble Qur'aan and the Prophetic Sunnah. Allaah, the Exalted, has said

﴿يَأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِن جَاءَكُمْ فَاسِقٌ بِنَبَأٍ فَتَبَيَّنُوا﴾

which means: “O you who believe! If a faasiq (liar, evil person) comes to you with news, verify it” ^{al-Hujuraat (49):6} and the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said what means, “May Allaah brighten the person who heard something from us, then conveyed it just as he heard it. Perhaps the one to whom it was conveyed understands more thoroughly than one who heard it.” ^{At-Tirmidhee}

Hence, the foregoing verse and hadeeth provide the basis for verifying narrations before accepting them, as well as accurately memorizing, preserving, and transmitting them. This is why the Companions (رضي الله عنهم) used to verify the transmission and acceptance of narrations; especially if they doubted the truthfulness of a narrator. Consequently, the topic of al-Isnaad (the chain of transmission) appeared, as well as its value in the area of accepting and rejecting narrations. Ibn Seereen stated what means, “Previously, they did not ask about the isnaad. However, when the fitnah (civil strife) occurred, they said, ‘Name to us your men.’ As such, the narrations of Ahlu-Sunnah (adherents to the Sunnah) were accepted, while those of Ahul-Bid‘ah (adherents to innovation) were not accepted.” ^{Introduction of Saheeh Muslim}

2- Based on the fact that a narration is unacceptable without knowing about its chain of transmission, the science of al-jarh wat-ta‘deel (disparagement and validation) appeared, along with knowing the muttasil (connected) and munqati‘ (broken) chains, as well as recognizing hidden defects. Additionally, some statements of criticism did surface about certain narrators, though these were very few due to the scarcity of disparaged narrators early on.

3- Next began verbal transmission of many branches of knowledge related to verifying the soundness of hadeeth, the receiving and conveying of hadeeth, abrogating and abrogated hadeeth, obscure phrases, and others.

4- Afterwards, these branches of knowledge were documented in written form while being mixed with other disciplines like usool, fiqh, and hadeeth, such as can be found in ar-Risaalah and al-Umm, both by ash-Shaafi‘ee ^{d. 204}.

5- In the fourth century after the Hijrah, the science of Mustalah became an independent discipline, and the first to devote a work exclusively to the subject was ar-Raamahurmuzee ^{d.360} in al-Muhaddith al-Faaasil baynar-Raawee wal-Waa‘ee

Terminologies from the Science of Hadeeth and Titles Given to the Scholars of Hadeeth

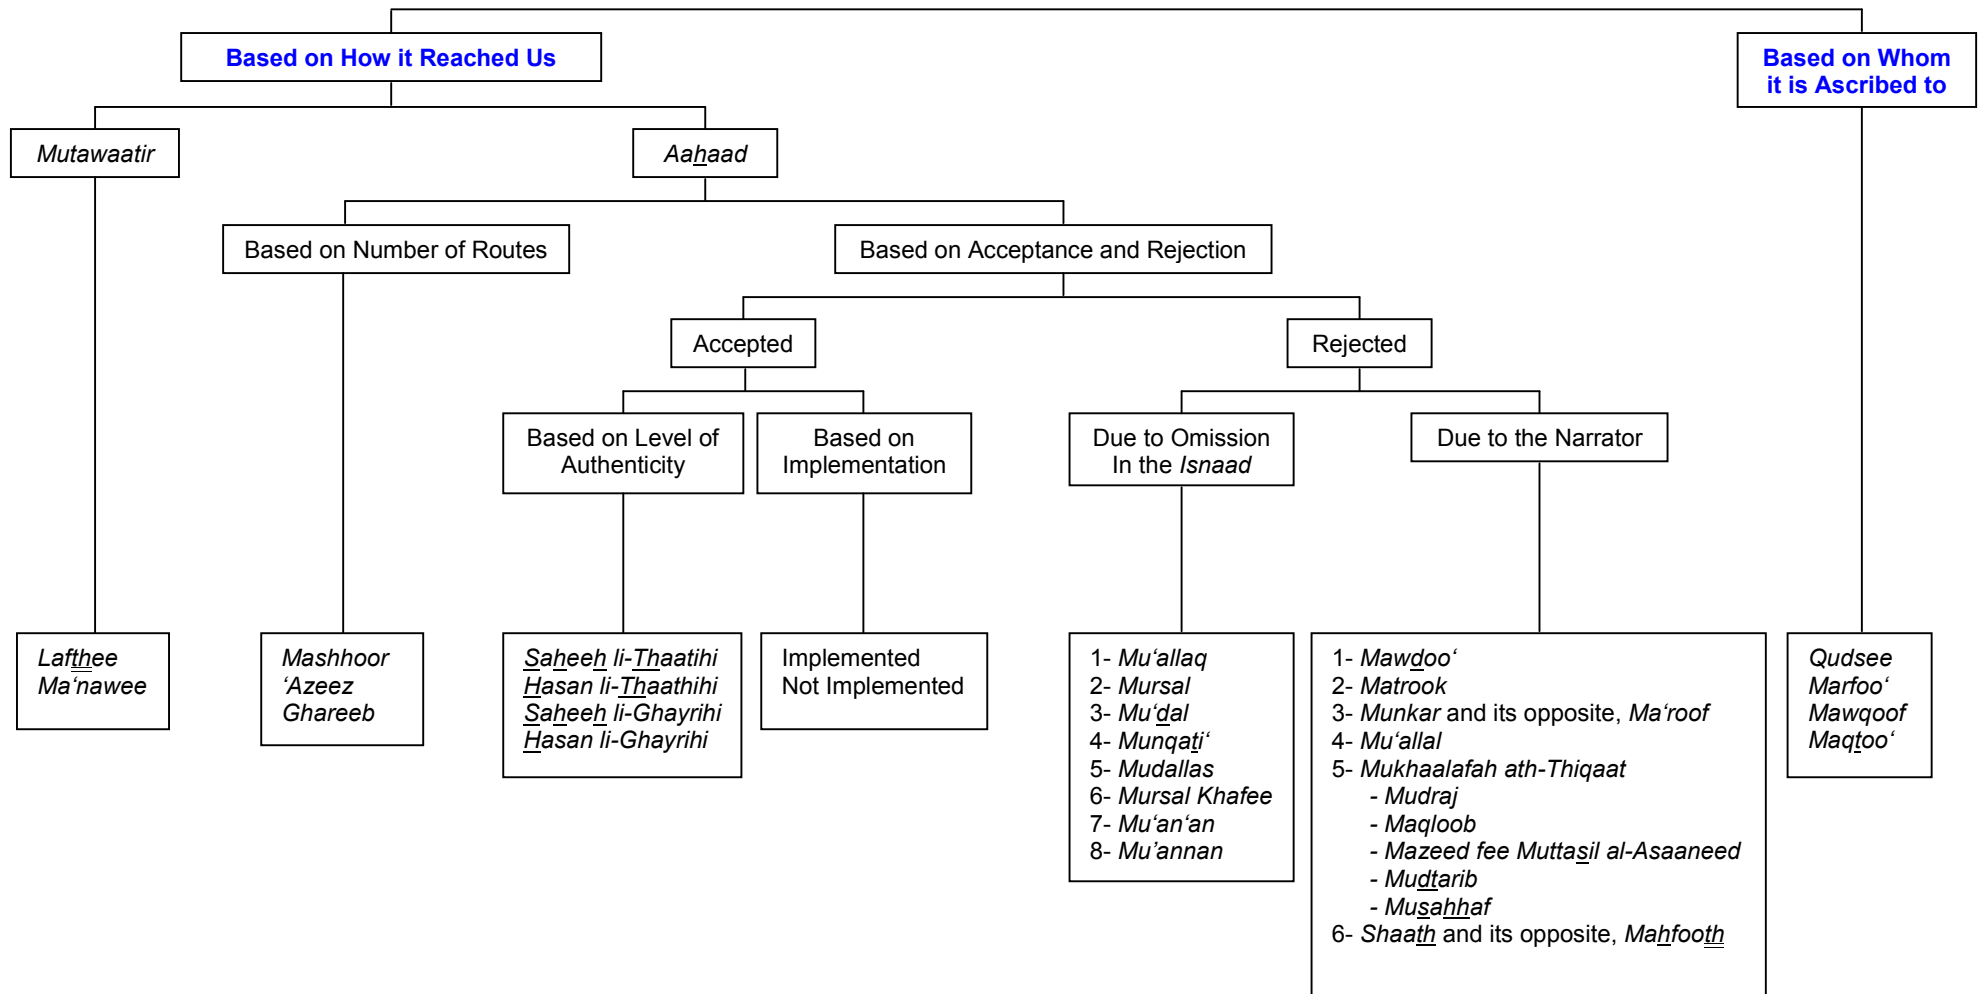

Terminologies from the Science of Hadeeth

- Sanad – Literally: something depended upon for support
– Technically: the chain of individuals connected to the matn (text), because the hadeeth leans on it for support and relies on it for authority
- Matn – Literally: hard, raised part of the ground
– Technically: the text at which the sanad ends
- Hadeeth – Literally: something new. Its plural is ahaadeeth
– Technically: any statement, action, approval, or description ascribed to the Prophet (ﷺ).
- Khabar – Literally: report
– Technically: there are three opinions
a) synonymous with hadeeth
b) different from it; hadeeth is reported from the Prophet (ﷺ), while khabar is from others
c) more general than it; hadeeth is reported from the Prophet (ﷺ), while khabar is from him as well as others
- Athar – Literally: remnant – Technically: there are two opinions
a) synonymous with hadeeth
b) different from it; statements and actions ascribed to the Sahaabah (Companions) and Taabi'een (Followers; the generation after the Companions)
- Isnaad – has two meanings
a) attributing a statement to the one who made it
b) the chain of individuals connected to the matn (text); same as sanad
- Musnad – Literally: something that has been attributed to someone – Technically: it has three meanings:
a) any book in which the narrations of each Sahaabee (Companion) are collected separately
b) the marfoo' hadeeth with a muttasil (connected) sanad
c) the same as sanad

Titles Given to the Scholars of Hadeeth

- 1- Muḥaddith: one who works extensively in the area of hadeeth, studying its riwaayah (aspects related to the sanad) and diraayah (aspects related to the matn), and is well-acquainted with very many of the narrations, as well as the states of their narrators.
- 2- Haafith: there are two opinions
a) synonymous with Muḥaddith according to many scholars of hadeeth
b) an even higher degree than the Muḥaddith, such that what he knows at every tabaqah (level of the chain) is more than what he doesn't know
- 3- Haakim: one that has very thorough knowledge and familiarity with all of the ahaadeeth such that very little escapes him
- 4- Musnid: one who narrates the hadeeth with its chain, regardless of whether he has knowledge of it or not
- 5- Hujjah: one whose knowledge encompasses 300,000 hadeeth
- 6- Ameer al-Mu'mineen fil-Hadeeth: renowned during his time for memorization, expertise, and thorough study; thus, placing him among the most distinguished authorities and leading scholars of his era.

Categories of Khabar and Hadeeth

Classification of Khabar Based on How it Reached Us

Mutawaatir

Definition:

- Literally: derived from the word tawaatur, meaning to follow one another consecutively
- Technically: what has been narrated by such a large number that it is inconceivable that they collaborated to propagate a lie

Ruling: it conveys 'ilm darooree (knowledge which is certain), such that one is obliged to decisively accept it, as if he witnessed the matter himself

Categories:

1- Laft^{hee}: mutawaatir in both wording and meaning

Example: "Anyone who deliberately lies about me must take his seat in Hellfire." This hadeeth was narrated by over seventy companions

2- Ma'nawee: mutawaatir in meaning, but not wording

Example: the various narrations about raising the two hands while making du'aa'

Conditions:

- 1- That a large number of people narrate it; there are several opinions about the minimum number required, and the opinion chosen here is ten individuals
- 2- This large number is present at all levels of the chain
- 3- It is inconceivable that they could have collaborated to propagate a lie
- 4- The report is based upon sense perception, such as them saying "we heard" or "we saw"

Prevalence:

There are a considerable number of mutawaatir narrations. However, it is small in comparison to the aa^haad narrations.

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

- 1- Al-Azhaar al-Mutanaathirah fil-Akhbaar al-Mutawaatirah, by as-Suyoot^{ee} ^{d.911}, organized by abwaab (topics)
- 2- Qatf al-Azhaar, by as-Suyoot^{ee} ^{d.911}; an abridgement of the previous book
- 3- Nathm al-Mutanaathir min al-Hadeeth al-Mutawaatir, by Mu^hammad ibn Ja'far al-Kattaanee

Aa^haad

Definition:

- Literally: the plural of ahad, meaning one
- Technically: a narration that does not fulfill the conditions of being mutawaatir

Ruling: it conveys 'ilm natharee (knowledge that must be investigated); meaning that its acceptance is conditional upon examination and evidence

Categories Based on the Number of Routes:

- 1- Mashhoor 2- 'Azeez 3- Ghareeb

Categories Based on Strength or Weakness:

Firstly, accepted hadeeth, which has two sub-divisions:

1- Based on Level of Authenticity, which are four types:

- | | |
|--|--|
| a) Sa^heeh li-Thaatihi (on its own) | b) Hasan li-Thaatihi (on its own) |
| c) Sa^heeh li-Ghayrihi (due to other factors) | d) Hasan li-Ghayrihi (due to other factors) |

2- Based on Implementation, which are two types

- | | |
|----------------|--------------------|
| a) Implemented | b) Not implemented |
|----------------|--------------------|

Classifying hadeeth into those which are implemented and those which are not implemented further leads to the topics of

- | | |
|--|---|
| a) Mu^hkam and Mukhtalif Hadeeth | b) Naasikh and Mansookh Hadeeth |
|--|---|

The accepted hadeeth which has qaraa'in (supporting narrations) becomes stronger. Thus, if it conflicts with another acceptable hadeeth which does not have qaraa'in, the former outweighs the latter. Instances of such qaraa'in include:

- 1- What al-Bukhaaree and Muslim reported in the Sa^heehayn (their two sa^heeh collections) which do not reach the level of mutawaatir, and that is due to:
 - a) The excellence of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim in this branch of knowledge
 - b) Their expertise in distinguishing the sa^heeh narrations relative to other scholars
 - c) Their two books being met with acceptance among the scholars
- 2- The mashhoor narration, as long as its routes are different and do not contain weak narrators and hidden defects
- 3- The report which is musalsal by way of scholars who are haafith, and is not ghareeb

Secondly, the rejected hadeeth, and there are two reasons for rejection:

- 1- Omission in the isnaad
- 2- Disparagement of a narrator

Mashhoor, Mustafeed, and the Non-Technical Meaning of Mashhoor

Mashhoor – Literally: publicized or announced Technically: narrated by three or more at each tabaqah (level of the sanad), yet has not reached the level of mutawaatir

Introductory Points

Example of Mashhoor: “Indeed, Allaah will not remove knowledge by seizing it and taking it away all at once...” ” al-Bukhaaree, Muslim, at-Tirmidhee, Ibn Maajah, Ahmad

Mustafeed

- Literally: overflowing and spreading
- Technically: there are three different opinions as to its definition:
 - 1- Synonymous with mashhoor
 - 2- More specific than it; it is stipulated for the mustafeed that the two ends of the chain must be equal, while this is not stipulated for mashhoor
 - 3- More general than it; contrary to the second opinion

Non-Technical Meaning of Mashhoor: something that has become well-known among people without fulfilling any legitimate criteria. This includes narrations that have:

- 1- One isnaad
- 2- More than one isnaad
- 3- No isnaad at all

Types of the Non-Technical Mashhoor

- 1- Mashhoor among the scholars of hadeeth; such as the hadeeth stating “the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) performed qunoot after rukoo’ for one month, supplicating against the tribes of Ra’l and Thakwaan.” ” al-Bukhaaree, Muslim
- 2- Mashhoor among the scholars of hadeeth, other scholars, and the masses in general; such as “The Muslim is one from whose tongue and hand other Muslims are safe.”
- 3- Mashhoor among the scholars of fiqh; such as “Among the permissible things, the most detested to Allaah is divorce” ” al-Haakim declared it saheeh in al-Mustadrak
- 4- Mashhoor among the scholars of usool; such as “My ummah will not be held to account for mistakes, forgetfulness, and coercion.”
- 5- Mashhoor among the scholars of nahw (Arabic grammar); such as “What an excellent person is Suhayb. His fear of Allaah prevented him from disobeying Him.”
- 6- Mashhoor among the general masses; such as “Hastiness is from shaytaan.”

Ruling of Mashhoor, and Most Renowned Works

Ruling: Mashhoor, both in the technical and non-technical sense, could be:

- Saheeh
- Hasan
- Da’eef
- Mawdooh

Most Renowned Works on Mashhoor in the Non-Technical Sense:

- 1- Al-La’aali’ al-Manthoorah fil-Ahaadeeth al-Mashhoorah, by Ibn Hajar ^{d.852}
- 2- Al-Maqaasid al-Hasanah feemaa Ishtahara ‘alaa al-Alsinah, by as-Sakhaawee ^{d.902}

- 10- Asnaa al-Ma’aalib, by Muhammad al-Hoot ^{d.1276}, collected by his son ‘Abdur-Rahmaan

'Azeez

Literally: strong or intense

Technically: that there are no less than two narrators at every level of the sanad

Ghareeb

Literally: the person who is alone or far from his relatives

Technically: what is reported by one narrator only

Categories

1- Ghareeb Mutlaq (absolute), also known as Fard Mutlaq. It is ghareeb at the root of its sanad, meaning that only one person narrated it from the root of the sanad.

Example: The hadeeth "Indeed, all actions are only by intentions." It was narrated only by 'Umar ibn al-Khattaab (ؓ).

2- Ghareeb Nisbee (relative), also known as Fard Nisbee. It is ghareeb at a later point in its sanad. This means more than one person narrated it at the root of its sanad, but then only one narrator reported it from that previous group.

Example: The hadeeth from Maalik, from az-Zuhree, from Anas that "the Prophet (ﷺ) entered Makkah wearing a mighfar (type of helmet)." » Al-Bukhaaree, Muslim Maalik was the only one who narrated it from az-Zuhree.

Reason for the Name Ghareeb Nisbee: it is ghareeb in relation to a specific person later on in the sanad.

Types of Ghareeb Nisbee

1- Only one thiqah (trustworthy narrator) narrates the hadeeth

Example: as indicated by the statement "No thiqah narrated it except Person A."

2- Only one specific narrator reports it from another specific narrator

Example: "Only Person A narrated it from Person B", even if it were narrated through other individuals and routes.

3- Only people from a particular place narrate it

Example: "Only people from Makkah or ash-Shaam narrated it."

4- Only one set of people narrate it from another set

Example: "Only people from al-Basrah narrated it from those of al-Madeenah"; or "Only people from ash-Shaam narrated it from those of al-Hijaz."

Saheeh li-Thaatihi

Saheeh – Literally: healthy or sound Technically: has a sanad connected from beginning to end, by way of narrators each of whom is ‘adl (upright) and daabit (retentive), without having any shuthooth or ‘illah

Other Matters Pertaining to Saheeh li-Thaatihi

Firstly

1- What is Meant by Grading a Hadeeth as being Saheeh: it fulfills the five conditions of the saheeh hadeeth. It does not mean that it is maqtoo' bis-sihhah (i.e. conclusively established as saheeh, such as the mutawaatir narration, for instance) since it is possible for a thiqah to err or forget.

2- What is meant by Grading a Hadeeth as not being Saheeh: it has not fulfilled some, or all, of the five conditions of the saheeh hadeeth. It does not necessarily mean that the narrator is a liar, since it is possible for someone who errs often to narrate correctly.

3- Stating a Certain Isnaad is Unrestrictedly Asahh al-Asaaneed (the Most Saheeh Isnaad there is): The view chosen here is that such cannot be conclusively stated, because the levels of authenticity vary in accordance with the extent to which the isnaad fulfills the conditions of being saheeh. Rarely does an isnaad satisfy each of the conditions at the very highest level possible. Hence, it is better to refrain from grading a particular isnaad as unrestrictedly being the most saheeh. Despite that, opinions regarding asahh al-asaaneed have been reported from some scholars, and it appears that each one chose for himself what he deemed as being the strongest. Among those opinions are:

- a) az-Zuhree, from Saalim, from his father [‘Abdullaah ibn ‘Umar ibn al-Khattaab]; such is the opinion of Ishaaq ibn Raahawayh and Ahmad
- b) Ibn Seereen, from ‘Abeedah, from ‘Alee [ibn Abee Taalib]; such is the opinion of Ibn al-Madeenee and al-Fallaas
- c) al-A’mash, from Ibraaheem, from ‘Alqamah, from ‘Abdullaah [ibn Mas’ood]; such is the opinion of Ibn Ma’een
- d) az-Zuhree, from ‘Alee ibn al-Husayn, from his father, from ‘Alee; such is the opinion of Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah
- e) Maalik, from Naafi’, from Ibn ‘Umar; such is the opinion of al-Bukhaaree

Some Collections of Saheeh Narrations

1- Saheeh al-Bukhaaree ^{d.256}

2- Saheeh Muslim ^{d.261}

3- Saheeh ibn Khuzaymah ^{d.311}: higher in level of authenticity than Saheeh ibn Hibbaan ^{d.354} since the author’s scrutiny was so thorough that he would not grade a narration saheeh if there was even the least criticism of the isnaad.

4- Saheeh ibn Hibbaan ^{d.354}: its organization was unconventional, since it was not organized as abwaab (topics) or as masaaneed (by individual narrators). Thus, he called it at-taqaseem wal-anwaa’ (divisions and types). Locating hadeeth in this book of his extremely difficult, but some of the later scholars have organized it into abwaab. Its author was lenient in grading hadeeth as being saheeh, but not as lenient as al-Haakim.

5- Mustadrak al-Haakim ^{d.405}: a massive book of hadeeth comprising:

- ahaadeeth that are saheeh according to the criteria of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim
- or the criteria of one of them, though neither of them collected it in their books
- ahaadeeth that al-Haakim considers saheeh, though they might not fulfill either of their criteria, which he refers to as saheehah al-isnaad
- although he mentioned some ahaadeeth which are not authentic, he pointed them out

Al-Haakim was lenient in grading narrations as being saheeh. Therefore, it is necessary to examine the ahaadeeth and grade them appropriately. Ath-Thahabee examined and graded most of the narrations, but the book still remains in need of further work and examination.

The Two Saheeh Collections of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim, as well as the Mustakhrajaat on Them

The Two Saheeh Collections of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim

Their Mustakhrajaat

In General:

- 1- Saheeh al-Bukhaaree is more authentic and has more benefit because:
 - a) The connections between the narrators are stronger
 - b) The narrators in its chains are more reliable
 - c) It contains more fiqh (legal) deductions
- 2- Saheeh Muslim may contain hadeeth stronger than some of those found in al-Bukhaaree
- 3- Did the two of them encompass all saheeh narrations? No they did not. In fact, there are many saheeh hadeeth which they did not collect. Al-Bukhaaree said, "I did not include in my book, al-Jaami ', anything except that which is saheeh. However, the saheeh narrations which I left out are greater in number." He also said, "I have memorized one hundred thousand saheeh hadeeth, and two hundred thousand hadeeth which are not saheeh." Muslim said, "I did not include here everything which I consider saheeh. I only included what they (i.e. the scholars) have agreed upon."

Number of Hadeeth in al-Bukhaaree: 7,275 with repetitions, and 4,000 without

Number of Hadeeth in Muslim: 12,000 with repetitions, and 4,000 without

Saheeh Hadeeth not collected by al-Bukhaaree and Muslim: can be found in dependable sources such as:

- | | |
|--|--|
| - Saheeh ibn Khuzaymah ^{d.311} | - Saheeh ibn Hibbaan ^{d.354} |
| - Jaami' at-Tirmitheeh ^{d.279} | - Mustadrak al-Haakim ^{d.405} |
| - Sunan Abee Daawood ^{d.204} | - Sunan Ibn Maajah ^{d.273} |
| - Sunan an-Nasaa'ee ^{d.303} | - Sunan ad-Daaraqutnee ^{d.385} |
| - Sunan al-Bayhaqee ^{d.458} | |

Note: The presence of hadeeth in these books is not sufficient to make them saheeh. Their authenticity must expressed, except in a book where the compiler stipulated that he would only collect saheeh narrations, such as Ibn Khuzaymah.

What is Graded Saheeh among the Narrations of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim

- 1- Whatever they reported with a connected isnaad
- 2- Mu'allaq narration, which has one or more narrators omitted from the beginning of the isnaad. There are many of these in al-Bukhaaree in its chapter headings and introductions, but none in the main body of the book itself. As for Muslim, there is one such narration in the chapter on tayammum.

Ruling on the Mu'allaq:

- 1- if it is reported in a way that conveys surety, such as "qaala" (he said), or "amara" (he ordered), then it is graded saheeh
- 2- if it is reported in a way that does not convey surety, such as "yaarwa" (it is reported), or "yuthkar" (it is said), then is not graded saheeh

Content of a Mustakhraj: a compiler takes an existing book of hadeeth and reports the same narrations, but with his own asaaneed which do not go through the route of the original author. Thus, he may meet with him at his shaykh or a further point in the isnaad.

Most Renowned Mustakhrajaat on the Saheehayn:

- 1- Mustakhraj of Aboo Bakr al-Ismaa'eelee ^{d.371} on al-Bukhaaree ^{d.256}
- 2- Mustakhraj of Aboo 'Awaanah al-Isfaraayeneeh ^{d.310} on Muslim ^{d.261}
- 3- Mustakhraj of Aboo Nu 'aym al-Aṣbahaanee ^{d.430} on both al-Bukhaaree and Muslim

Extent to which the Authors of Mustakhrajaat Complied with Wordings of the Saheehayn:

small discrepancies in some of the wordings occurred because they reported the wordings which reached them by way of their shuyookh. A similar instance to this what the classical authors collected in their own individual works such as al-Bayhaqee, al-Baghawee, and others like them, when they would say, "reported by al-Bukhaaree" or "reported by Muslim", although there was some discrepancy in meaning or wording. By saying "reported by al-Bukhaaree and Muslim," they meant that the two of them reported the basis of the narration.

Can We Cite a Hadeeth from Mustakhrajaat and Ascribe it to al-Bukhaaree and Muslim? It is not allowed to cite a hadeeth from mustakhraj works, or books previously mentioned, while saying it is collected by al-Bukhaaree or Muslim unless:

- 1- The hadeeth is compared with and found to match their narration
- 2- The author of the mustakhraj says, "They reported it with this wording"

Some Purposes of Mustakhrajaat on the Saheehayn:

- 1- 'Uluww al-Isnaad (having a shorter isnaad): for instance, if the author of the mustakhraj narrates a hadeeth from the route of al-Bukhaaree, it might be longer than the route he himself reports in the mustakhraj.
- 2- Enriching the Saheeh: since the mustakhraj works may contain extra wordings and additions for some ahadeeth.
- 3- Strength by Having Numerous Routes: the advantage of which is being able to give a narration preference over other conflicting narrations

Further Discussion About the Saheeh Hadeeth

Ranks of the Saheeh

Ranks of the Saheeh Hadeeth in Terms of Isnaad and Narrators:

- 1- The highest rank is what has been narrated through one of asahh al-asaaneed (the most saheeh chains), such as Maalik, from Naafi', from Ibn 'Umar.
- 2- A level below that is what is narrated from a route where the narrators are less reliable than those of the foregoing isnaad, such as the narration of Hammaad ibn Salamah, from Thaabit, from Anas.
- 3- A level further below is the narration of those who fulfill the minimum requirements for being considered thiqah, such as narration of Suhayl ibn Abee Saalih, from his father, from Aboo Hurayrah

In General, the Ranks of the Saheeh Hadeeth are Seven:

- 1- Agreed upon by al-Bukhaaree and Muslim, which is the highest level
- 2- Reported only by al-Bukhaaree
- 3- Reported Only by Muslim
- 4- Fulfills the conditions of both al-Bukhaaree and Muslim, though they did not report it
- 5- Fulfills conditions of al-Bukhaaree, though he did not report it
- 6- Fulfills conditions of Muslim, though he did not report it
- 7- Considered saheeh according to other scholars, such as Ibn Khuzaymah, Ibn Hibbaan, and does not fulfill the conditions of either al-Bukhaaree or Muslim

Miscellaneous

Conditions of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim: that the hadeeth be narrated through narrators of one or both of these books, while adhering to the method employed by al-Bukhaaree and Muslim in narrating from them.

Meaning of "Muttafaqun 'Alayhi" (Agreed Upon): Consensus of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim to it being saheeh, and not the consensus of all scholars. Ibn as-Salaah commented, "However, general scholarly consensus does result from that and is necessarily implied, since the scholars have unanimously accepted what the two of them agree upon."

Is it Stipulated that a narration be 'azeez, meaning that it have two isnaads, in order to be saheeh? This is not a necessary condition, because there are ahaadeeth in the saheehayn, and other books, which are saheeh despite being ghareeb.

Hasan

Literally: beautiful

Technically: has a sanad connected from beginning to end, by way of narrators each of whom is 'adl (upright) though at a lesser degree of dabt, without having any shuṭṭooḥ or 'illah

Ruling, Ranks, and Example

Ruling: Used as proof, just as the ṣaḥeeḥ, despite not being as strong.

Ranks:

- 1- Its highest rank: Bahz ibn Hakeem, from his father, from his grandfather; and 'Amr ibn Shu'ayb, from his father, from his grandfather; and Ibn Ishaq, from at-Tayme; and other similar narrations which are called ṣaḥeeḥ, although they are from the very lowest ranks of ṣaḥeeḥ.
- 2- Next in rank is where there is difference over it being ḥasan or ḍa'eef, such as the narrations of al-Haarith ibn 'Abdillaah, 'Aasim ibn Damrah, and Hajjaaj ibn Arṭa'ah, and others like them.

Example: what at-Tirmithe collected, saying: Qutaybah narrated to us saying, Ja'far ibn Sulaymaan aḍ-Ḍuba'ee narrated to us, from Aboo 'Imraan al-Jawnee, from Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Moosaa al-Ash'aree who said, "I heard my father saying in the presence of the enemy, 'The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said that the gates of Jannah are under the shade of swords..." At-Tirmithe said, "This ḥadeeth is ḥasan ghareeb, because the four narrators in its sanad are thiqaat except for Ja'far ibn Sulaymaan. He is ṣadooq (honest), and this is why the ḥadeeth is lowered from the rank of ṣaḥeeḥ to ḥasan."

Where Most Likely Found

There are no works specifically devoted to the ḥasan ḥadeeth. However, there are books in which it is abundantly found such as:

- 1- Jaami' at-Tirmithe ^{d.279}; the source for identifying the ḥasan narration. In fact, he is the one who made it widely known.
- 2- Sunan Abee Daawood ^{d.204}; if a ḥadeeth is found here without being identified as ḍa'eef, and no dependable scholar graded it ṣaḥeeḥ, then Aboo Daawood considers it as ḥasan.
- 3- Sunan ad-Daaraqutnee ^{d.385}; he listed many of them in his Sunan.

Terms Used by at-Tirmithe and al-Baghawee

Firstly, at-Tirmithe saying "ḥadeeth ḥasan ṣaḥeeḥ":

- 1- If the ḥadeeth has two or more isnaads, it means one isnaad is ḥasan and the other is ṣaḥeeḥ.
- 2- If it has only one isnaad, it means that some scholars consider it ḥasan while the others consider it ṣaḥeeḥ.

Secondly, al-Baghawee saying "ṣaḥeeḥ" in reference to ḥadeeth in the Ṣaḥeeḥayn, or one of them, and "ḥasan" to those in the four sunan works: this does not conform with the general terminology of the scholars of ḥadeeth, because the four sunan collections contain narrations that are ṣaḥeeḥ, ḥasan, ḍa'eef and munkar.

Among the Ranks of Accepted Narrations: Saheeh li-Ghayrihi and Hasan li-Ghayrihi

Saheeh li-Ghayrihi

Definition: it is the hasan li-thaatihi narration when it is reported through another similar route or one even stronger. It is called saheeh li-ghayrihi (saheeh due to other factors) because its being saheeh does not result from its own sanad. Rather, it only results from combining others with it.

Rank: above hasan li-thaatihi, but below saheeh li-thaatihi

Example: the hadeeth: Muḥammad ibn ‘Amr, from Aboo Salamah, from Aboo Hurayrah, that the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, “Were it not that I feared hardship for my ummah, I would have ordered them to use the siwaak at each prayer.” at-Tirmithi^{ee}. Ibn as-Salaah stated, “Muḥammad ibn ‘Amr ibn ‘Alqamah is one of those well-known for sidq (honesty) and amaanah (truthfulness). However, he is not recognized as having itqaan (a precise memory). In fact, some scholars have declared him da’eef due to his poor memory, while others declared him thiqah due to his honesty and excellence. Consequently, his hadeeth is hasan, but when combined with the fact that it is narrated from other routes, what we may have feared due to his poor memory is effectively removed. This rectifies the minor flaw, making the isnaad saheeh, and allowing the narration to reach the rank of saheeh.”

Hasan li-Ghayrihi

Definition: it is the da’eef narration when it has numerous routes, and the reason for it being da’eef is not fisq (open sinfulness) of a narrator, or kathib (lying). It can be understood from this definition that the da’eef ascends to the rank of hasan li-ghayrihi due to two factors:

- 1- It is reported through one or more other routes with the condition that they be similar or greater in strength.
- 2- That the reason for the hadeeth being da’eef is either the poor memory of a narrator, a break in the sanad, or jahaalah (not knowing) about a narrator.

Rank: lower than hasan li-thaatihi

Ruling: among the accepted narrations which are used as proof

Example: what was reported and declared hasan by at-Tirmithi^{ee}, by way of Shu’bah, from ‘Aasim ibn ‘Ubaydillaah, from ‘Abdullaah ibn ‘Aamir ibn Rabee’ah, from his father, that a woman from the tribe of Fazaarah received a pair of slippers as her marriage dowry. Then, the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) asked her, “Are you satisfied with a pair of slippers in exchange for yourself, while you have wealth,” to which she responded, “Yes.” So, he permitted it. ‘Aasim is da’eef due to his poor memory, and at-Tirmithi^{ee} declared this hadeeth from him to be hasan because it was reported through other routes.

Muhkam and Mukhtalif al-Hadeeth; and Naasikh (Abrogating) and Mansookh (Abrogated)

Muhkam and Mukhtalif al-Hadeeth

Definition of al-Muhkam:

- Literally: perfected
- Technically: the accepted hadeeth which does not conflict with one similar to it

Definition of Mukhtalif al-Hadeeth:

- Literally: inconsistent; the opposite of corresponding
- Technically: the accepted hadeeth – saheeh or hasan – which conflicts with one similar to it, although it is still possible to reconcile between them

Example:

- 1- "There is no 'adwaa (contagion) and no tiyarah (omen from birds)..." Muslim
- 2- "Flee from the leper as you would flee from a lion." al-Bukhaaree

Both of these hadeeth are saheeh and they appear to conflict since the first one negates 'adwaa while the second one seems to affirm it.

Method of Reconciling Between the Two Hadeeth:

The scholars have reconciled between them in several ways, such as mentioning that 'adwaa is negated in the Prophet's (ﷺ) saying, "Nothing infects something else by contagion." al-Tirmidhee 4/450, Ahmad Also, there is his (ﷺ) reply to the person who inquired about a mangy camel being among healthy ones which would then be infected, where he said, "Who caused the first one to be infected?" al-Bukhaaree 10/171, Muslim, Aboo Daawood, Ahmad

The command to flee from the leper is a precautionary measure; this is in order to avoid interaction with the leper coinciding with contracting the disease – though due to qadar (divine decree), not due to contagion – lest he think that it resulted from interacting with the leper, and he believe in contagion, thus falling into sin.

What to do When Two Hadeeth Appear to Conflict:

- 1- If it is possible to reconcile between them, such must be done and both are to be implemented
- 2- If it is not possible to reconcile between them in any way:
 - a) If one of them is naasikh, it is given precedence and implemented while the mansookh is left off
 - b) If that is not known, one is chosen over the other using methods of tarjeeh (weighing and giving precedence), which are more than fifty, and is then implemented
 - c) If one cannot be given precedence over the other, although this is very rare, neither is to be implemented until one is deemed to be more preferable

Naasikh and Mansookh

Naskh:

- Literally: removal, as in "nasakhat ash-shams ath-thill", meaning the sun removed the shade; also to copy, as in "nasakhtu al-kitaab", meaning I copied the book
- Technically: Allaah replacing a former ruling with a newer one

Importance, Complexity, and Most Renowned Scholars:

It is one of the most complex topics, and az-Zuhree said, "Knowing the naasikh al-hadeeth from the mansookh has exhausted and incapacitated the scholars of fiqh." The most renowned scholar in this field was ash-Shaafi'ee, about whom al-Imaam Ahmad commented, "We did not know the mujmal (general texts) apart from the mufassar (particular texts), nor the naasikh al-hadeeth from the mansookh until we sat and learned from ash-Shaafi'ee."

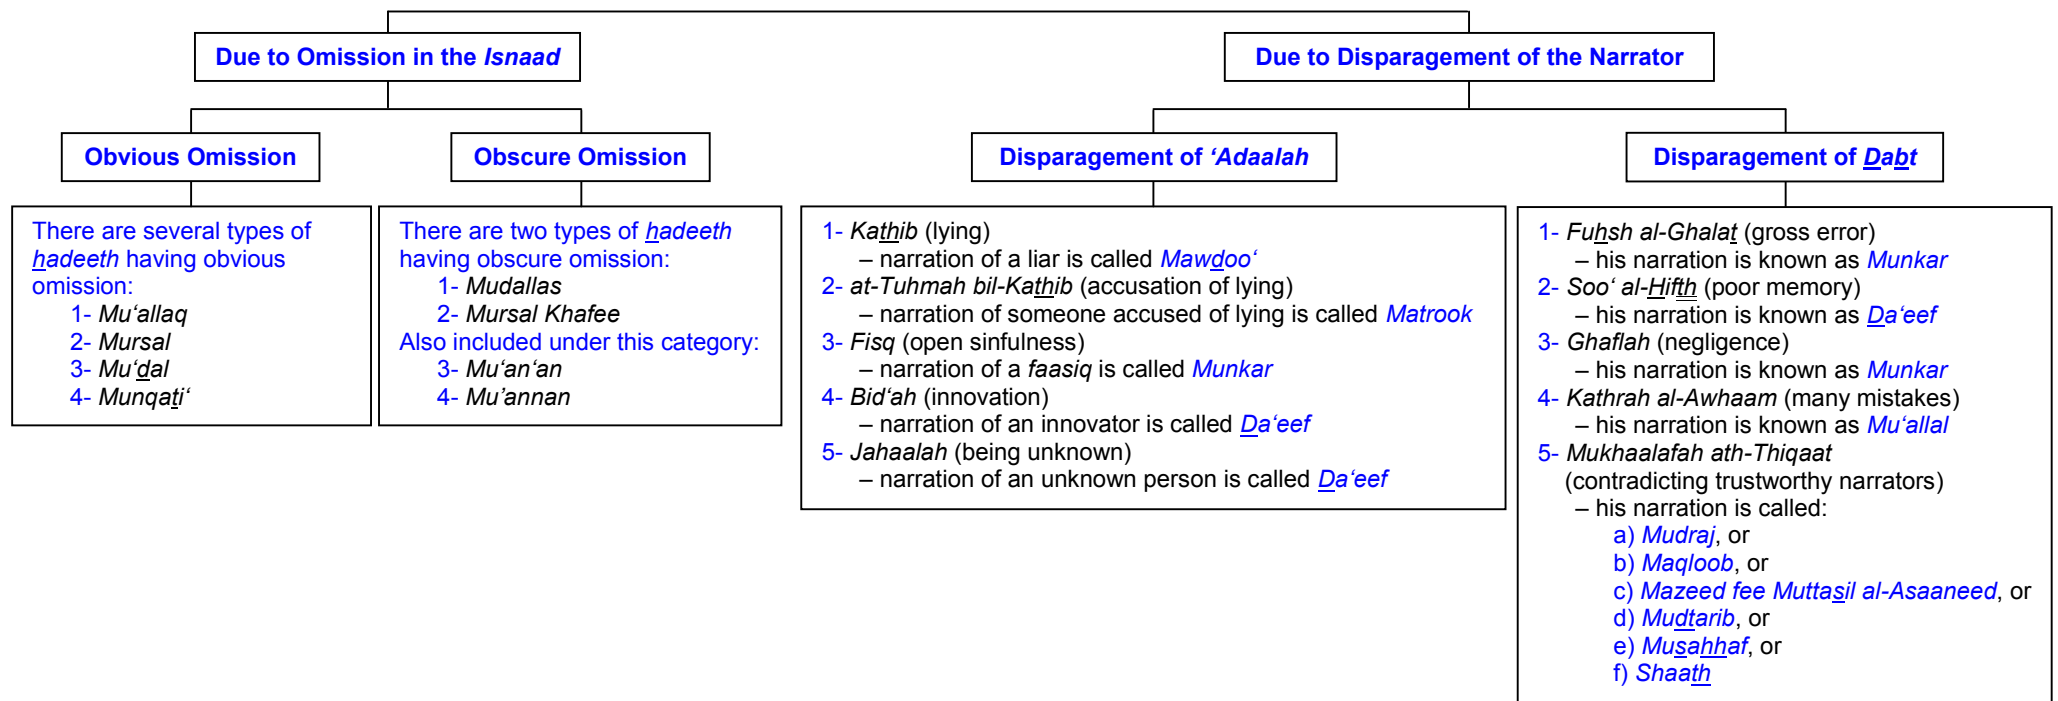

Ways of Telling the Naasikh Apart from the Mansookh:

- 1- Outright statement from the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ), such as in the hadeeth of Buraydah in Saheeh Muslim, "In the past, I had prohibited you from visiting graves; but now you may visit them, because they remind one of the hereafter." Muslim
- 2- Statement of a Sahaabee, such as Jaabir ibn 'Abdillaah (ؓ) saying, "The last of the two orders of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) was to not perform wudoo' after eating food cooked over fire." Ashaab as-Sunan
- 3- Knowing the time of occurrence, such as the hadeeth of Shaddaad ibn Aws, "The person who has hijaamah (blood-letting) performed on him, as well as the one who performs it, both nullify their fast," Aboo Daawood which was abrogated by the hadeeth of Ibn 'Abbaas stating "the Prophet (ﷺ) had hijaamah performed on him while in a state of ihraam and fasting." Muslim Some narrations from Shaddaad mention it took place at the time of the conquest of Makkah, whereas Ibn 'Abbaas accompanied the Prophet (ﷺ) during the Farewell Hajj.
- 4- Scholarly consensus, such as the hadeeth, "If someone consumes alcoholic drink, then lash him. If he returns to it a fourth time, then he must be killed." Aboo Daawood, al-Tirmidhee. An-Nawawee stated, "Scholarly consensus points to its abrogation." Such consensus in and of itself does not abrogate, nor can it be abrogated. Rather, it indicates the existence of a naasikh (abrogating factor).

Categories of Da'eef or Rejected Hadeeth

The Rejected Report – Da'eef – and the Primary Causes for its Rejection

It is the report where the honesty of the narrator cannot be confirmed due to one or more conditions of acceptance remaining unfulfilled. Reasons for rejection are as follows:

Omission in the Isnaad

What is Meant: Break in the isnaad due to the omission of one or more narrators, whether deliberate or unintentional. This can be at the beginning, end, or anywhere along the sanad, and the omission could be obvious or obscure.

Types of Omission:

1- Obvious Omission: This can be recognized by both the experts as well as others among the scholars of hadeeth. It occurs from the narrator not having met the shaykh from whom he narrates; either because he was not alive at the same time, or he was alive but did not actually meet him; and he does not have ijazah (permission) or wijaadah (finding written material) from him. As such, the person researching the various isnaads must know the taareekh (chronology) of the narrators, because it includes their dates of birth, death, period of study, and travels. The scholars have given four names to obvious omissions according to the location or number of narrators omitted. They are:

- a) Mu'allaq
- b) Mursal
- c) Mu'dal
- d) Munqati'

2- Obscure Omission: This is only recognized by the well-versed experts who have much knowledge about the routes of narration of hadeeth, as well as the hidden defects in the chains. It is given two names:

- a) Mudallas
- b) Mursal Khafee

Disparagement of the Narrator

What is Meant: Disparagement and criticism in terms of his 'adaalah and religious commitment, or in terms of his dabt, memory and attentiveness.

Reasons for Disparagement:

1- Those related to 'Adaalah

- a) Kathib (Lying)
- b) at-Tuhmah bil-Kathib (Accusation of Lying)
- c) Fisq (Open Sinfulness)
- d) Bid'ah (Innovation)
- e) Jahaalah (Being Unknown)

2- Those related to Dabt

- a) Fuhsh al-Ghalaṭ (Gross Error)
- b) Soo' al-Hifṭh (Poor Memory)
- c) Ghافلah (Negligence)
- d) Kathrah al-Awḥaam (Many Mistakes)
- e) Mukhaalafah ath-Thiqaat (Contradicting Trustworthy Narrators)

Da'eef

Literally: weak; opposite of strong

Technically: does not fulfill one or more conditions of being hasan

Mu‘allaq

Literally: hanging or tied

Technically: where one or more consecutive narrators have been omitted from the beginning of the isnaad

Forms of Mu‘allaq Hadeeth:

- 1- Omitting the entire isnaad then saying, “The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said:...”
- 2- Omitting the entire isnaad with the exception of the Sahaabee, or the Sahaabee and Taabi‘ee

Example:

“And Aboo Moosaa said, ‘The Prophet (ﷺ) covered his knees when ‘Uthmaan entered.’”^{al-Bukhaaree} This is a mu‘allaq hadeeth because al-Bukhaaree omitted all of its isnaad except the Sahaabee, Aboo Moosaa al-Ash‘aree.

General Ruling: It is rejected since it does not fulfill one of the criteria of acceptance; namely, it does not have a connected isnaad. One or more narrators are omitted from the isnaad without us knowing details of those omitted.

Ruling of Mu‘allaq Hadeeth Appearing in the Saheehayn:

- 1- If reported in a way that conveys surety, such as “qaala” (he said), “thakara” (he mentioned), or “haka” (he told), then it is graded as saheeh in relation to the person it is attributed to.
- 2- If reported in a way that does not convey surety, such as “qeela” (it has been said), or “thukira” (it has been mentioned), or “hukiya” (it has been told), then that is not enough to determine if it can be graded as saheeh from the person it is attributed to. Such a report could be saheeh, hasan, or da‘eef, but not waah because it appears in a book titled “as-Saheeh”. The way of determining the saheeh narration from others is by researching its isnaad and giving it a suitable grading.

Mursal

Literally: something that has been set free

Technically: omission of anyone after the Taabi'ee at the end of the isnaad

Forms and Example

Form the Mursal Takes According to the Scholars of Hadeeth:

A Taabi'ee, whether young or old, says, "The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said...", or "...did...", or "...was done in his presence."

Example: Muslim stated in his Saheeh: Muhammad ibn Raafi' narrated to me saying, Juhayn narrated to us saying, al-Layth narrated to us, from 'Uqayl, from Ibn Shihaab, from Sa'eed ibn al-Musayyib that the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) prohibited the practice of muzaabanah (sale of fresh dates on the tree for dry dates by measure). ^{Muslim} Sa'eed is a senior Taabi'ee who narrated this hadeeth from the Prophet (ﷺ) without mentioning the intermediary between them. He omitted the ending of the isnaad from this hadeeth, that being the person after the Taabi'ee. At the very least, the Sahaabee is omitted. However, it is possible that others are omitted with him, such as another Taabi'ee, for instance.

Form the Mursal Takes According to the Scholars of Fiqh and Usool:

More general than the view of the scholars of hadeeth, in that every munqati' narration is mursal regardless of what form the breakage takes.

Mursal as-Sahaabee: where the Sahaabee narrates what the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said or did without directly hearing or seeing it. This may have been due to young age, accepting Islaam later on, or not being present at the time. There are many ahaadeeth of this type from young Sahaabah such as Ibn 'Abbaas, Ibn az-Zubayr, and others.

Ruling on Mursal as-Sahaabee: saheeh and used as proof. This is because it is rare to find the Sahaabah narrating from the Taabi'een, and if they did narrate from the Taabi'een, they made it clear. However, if they said, "the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said..." without clarification of whom they heard it from, the default is that they heard it from another Sahaabee, and omission of a Sahaabee in this case does no harm.

Its Use as Proof, Its Ranks, and Most Renowned Works

Its Use as Proof: the general rule is that it is da'eef and rejected. However, there is difference of opinion regarding its authority as proof since the person omitted from the sanad is one of the Sahaabah in most cases, and they are all 'udool (upright):

1- Majority of the scholars of hadeeth, and many scholars of usool and fiqh: are of the opinion that it is rejected. Their reasoning is that the condition of the narrator omitted is unknown and he might not be a Sahaabee.

2- Aboo Haneefah, Maalik, other scholars, and a widely known opinion of Ahmad: say it is saheeh and used as proof with the condition that the mursil (i.e. narrator of the mursal report) is a thiqah, and he only narrates from another thiqah. Their reasoning is that the Taabi'ee who is a thiqah would not allow himself to say, "the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said...", unless he actually heard it from another thiqah.

3- Ash-Shaafi'ee and other scholars: said it is accepted with four conditions.

Three conditions pertain to the narrator, and they are:

- a) The mursil is among the senior Taabi'een
- b) If he were to name whom he narrated from, he would name a thiqah
- c) His narration does not contradict narrations of the reliable huffaath (i.e. scholars at the level of haafith)

One condition pertains to the mursal narration itself, and it is one of the following four things:

- a) It is narrated through a different route in musnad form (i.e. connected isnaad reaching the Prophet (ﷺ))
- b) or it is narrated through a different route in mursal form, and its mursil studied under teachers different from those of the initial mursil
- c) or it conforms with the statement of a Sahaabee
- d) or that most of the scholars pass judgments in accordance with it

Only then are both a mursal narration and its supporting narration considered saheeh. In the case where a saheeh hadeeth having one route of transmission contradicts the two of them and reconciliation is not possible, they are given preference over it because of the greater number of routes.

Its Ranks:

- 1- Highest is the mursal by a Sahaabee known to have heard from the Prophet (ﷺ)
- 2- then a sahaabee who only saw the Prophet (ﷺ) and is not known to have heard from him
- 3- then the mukhadram
- 4- then the mutqin (precise narrator), such as Sa'eed ibn al-Musayyib
- 5- then the narrator who used to carefully select his shuyookh, such as ash-Sha'bee and Mujaahid
- 6- then the mursal narrations of those who used to narrate from anyone, such as al-Hasan
- 7- as for the mursal from the younger Taabi'een, such as Qataadah, az-Zuhree and Humayd at-Taweel, most of their narration is from other Taabi'een

Mu'dal and Munqati'

Mu'dal – Literally: incapacitated
Munqati' – Literally: disconnected

Technically: has two or more consecutive narrators omitted from its isnaad
Technically: any break in the isnaad, regardless of the form it takes

Mu'dal

Example: what al-Haakim reported in Ma'rifah 'Uloom al-Hadeeth with his sanad going to al-Qa'nabee, from Maalik who said it was conveyed to him that Aboo Hurayrah said, "the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, 'the slave has the right to be fed and clothed in a decent manner, and that he not be burdened with a task beyond his capacity.'" Al-Haakim stated, "Maalik reported it in this fashion in al-Muwatta' and it is mu'dal from him since two consecutive narrators are omitted between Maalik and Aboo Hurayrah. We know two consecutive narrators are missing by the narration of the hadeeth outside of al-Muwatta' where it says, '...from Maalik, from Muhammad ibn 'Ajaan, from his father, from Aboo Hurayrah.'"

Ruling: Da'eef; and it is worse than mursal and munqati' due to having a greater number of people omitted from the isnaad. This is the ruling by scholarly consensus.

Commonality Between Mu'dal and Some Instances of Mu'allaq:

- 1- They share a common form when two consecutive narrators are omitted from the beginning of the isnaad, making it mu'dal and mu'allaq simultaneously
- 2- They are distinct in two instances:
 - a) If two consecutive narrators are omitted from the middle of the isnaad, it is mu'dal, but not mu'allaq
 - b) If only one narrator is omitted from the beginning of the isnaad, it is mu'allaq but not mu'dal

- Works by Ibn Abid-Dunyaa ^{d.281}

Munqati'

Expanded Definition: any broken isnaad, regardless of where the breakage occurs; it could be at the beginning, end, or middle of the isnaad. Based on this, it includes mursal, mu'allaq and mu'dal. However, the later scholars of mustalah limited the use of the term munqati' to that which does not fit the definitions of mursal, mu'allaq, or mu'dal; and, in most cases, the early scholars also used it in similar sense. This is why an-Nawawee said, "Its most common usage is in describing the narration of anyone below a Taabi'ee who narrates from a Sahaabee, such as Maalik from Ibn 'Umar."

Munqati' according to the Later Scholars of Hadeeth: has a broken isnaad, and is not included by the definitions of mu'allaq, mursal, or mu'dal. In other words, munqati' is a general term for any type of breakage in the sanad, except for three specific forms:

- 1- Omission at the beginning of the isnaad, as is the case with mu'allaq
- 2- Omission at end of the isnaad, as is the case with mursal
- 3- Omission of two consecutive narrators from any place in the isnaad, as is the case with mu'dal

This was the view taken by Ibn Hajar in an-Nukhbah as well as its explanation. In addition, the breakage could be at one or more spots – for instance, two or three different ones.

Example: what 'Abdur-Razzaaq reported from ath-Thawree, from Aboo Ishaaq, from Zayd ibn Yuthay', from Huthayfah in marfoo' form, "If you entrust Aboo Bakr with it, then he shall be strong and trustworthy," ^{al-Haakim} One person has been omitted from the middle of this isnaad, and that is Shareek who was omitted between ath-Thawree and Aboo Ishaaq, since ath-Thawree did not hear the hadeeth directly from Aboo Ishaaq. In fact, he only heard it directly from Shareek who, in turn, heard it from Aboo Ishaaq. This type of breakage does not fit the definitions of the terms mursal, mu'allaq, or mu'dal. Hence, it is called munqati'.

Ruling: Da'eef by scholarly consensus, due to not knowing the condition of the omitted narrator.

Mudallas

Literally: concealed in the dark; from the word tadlees

Technically: concealing a flaw in the isnaad, and enhancing its external appearance

Categories

1- Tadlees al-Isnaad: a narrator reports from someone he is known to have heard from; yet he narrates something which he did not hear directly from him, doing so without saying that he heard it directly. It takes the form of a narrator reporting from a shaykh from whom he heard some ahaadeeth; however, as for the hadeeth of which he is making tadlees, he did not actually hear it from him, but instead heard it from another shaykh. Hence, he omits the latter shaykh and narrates it from the former using a phrase that could imply direct hearing as well as the lack thereof, such as “qaala” (he said) or “‘an” (from), in order to give the impression that he did actually hear it directly. He does not make the outright claim that he heard it directly and refrains from using phrases like “sami‘tu” (I heard), or “haddathanee” (he narrated to me), so that he would not be lying. Furthermore, it is possible that he may have omitted one or even more people.

Difference between Mudallas and Mursal Khafee: both of them have the narrator reporting something from a shaykh which he did not actually hear from him, while using a phrase that could imply direct hearing as well as the lack thereof. However, the mudallis (i.e. narrator of the mudallas report) heard ahaadeeth from the shaykh other than the hadeeth of which he is making tadlees. As for the mursal (i.e. narrator of the mursal report), he did not hear anything from the shaykh to begin with, but he was alive at the same time, and may have met him.

Example: al-Haakim reported with his sanad to ‘Alee ibn Khashram who said, ‘Ibn ‘Uyaynah said to us, ‘‘an (from) az-Zuhree.’’ He was asked, ‘Did you hear it from az-Zuhree?’ to which he replied, ‘No; neither from az-Zuhree, nor from the person who heard it from az-Zuhree. ‘Abdur-Razzaaq narrated to me, from Ma‘mar, from az-Zuhree.’’’ Here, Ibn ‘Uyaynah omitted two narrators between himself and az-Zuhree.

Ruling: extremely undesirable, and most of the scholars have censured it. Shu‘bah stated, “Tadlees is the brother of lying.”

Motives:

- 1- To give false impression of ‘uluww al-isnaad
- 2- Having missed ahaadeeth from a shaykh whom he heard much from
- 3- The shaykh being da‘eef, or not thiqah
- 4- The shaykh living a long life, such that others heard from the shaykh along with him
- 5- The shaykh being younger than the one who narrates from him

Tadlees at-Taswiyah*: this is a type of tadlees al-isnaad, where a narrator reports from his shaykh, then omits a da‘eef narrator between two thiqah narrators, both of whom met each other. This means the narrator narrates a hadeeth from a shaykh who is thiqah. That shaykh narrated from a da‘eef narrator who narrated from another thiqah, and the two thiqah narrators met one another. Hence, the mudallis who heard the hadeeth from the first thiqah omits the da‘eef narrator and links the isnaad to the thiqah shaykh of that omitted narrator using a phrase that could imply direct hearing. This makes the isnaad appear to contain only thiqaat.

Ruling: even more disliked than tadlees al-isnaad. Al-‘Iraaqee stated, “It emanates from someone who did it deliberately.”

2- Tadlees ash-Shuyookh: a narrator reports a hadeeth from his shaykh which he heard from him directly, but names him using a name, kunyah, nasab (ascription), or description by which he cannot be recognized in order to conceal his identity.

Example: Aboo Bakr ibn Mujaahid, one of the reciters, saying, “‘Abdullaah ibn Abee ‘Abdillaah narrated to us...’’ and saying that in reference to Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Daawood as-Sijistaanee.

Ruling: it is not as disliked as tadlees al-isnaad, because the mudallis did not omit anyone. The practice is only disliked due to losing track of the person from whom it was reported, and making it difficult for the person hearing to recognize him. Its severity varies based on the motive for which it was done.

Motives:

- 1- The shaykh being da‘eef, or not thiqah
- 2- The shaykh living a long life, such that others heard from the shaykh along with him
- 3- The shaykh being younger than the one who narrates from him
- 4- There being a multitude of narrations from him, so the narrator dislikes frequently mentioning his name in the same form

Ruling, How Identified, Renowned Works

There are Two Opinions about the Ruling on Narration of the Mudallas:

- 1- Rejecting it without exception, even if there is clarification of direct hearing, because tadlees itself is a form of disparagement.
- 2- Considering details, which is the correct position:

- a) If there is a clear statement of direct hearing, the narration is accepted; meaning that if the narrator said “sami‘tu” (I heard), or something similar, his hadeeth is accepted.
- b) If there is no clear statement of direct hearing, the narration is not accepted; meaning that if the narrator said, “‘an” (from), or something similar, his hadeeth is not accepted.

How is Tadlees Identified?

- 1- Admission of the mudallis himself, such as in a situation where he was asked about it.
- 2- One of the authoritative scholars of hadeeth stating its occurrence, and knowing that based upon his research and investigation

Reasons for Censuring the Mudallis:

- 1- Giving the false impression of hearing directly from someone whom he did not hear from
- 2- Resorting to ambiguity instead of clarity
- 3- Knowing that if he were to mention the person of whom he made tadlees, he would be disapproved

Mursal Khafee, Mu'an'an, and Mu'annan

Mursal Khafee

Definition:

- Literally: set free
- Technically: narrates from someone he met, or who was alive at same time, something he did not directly hear from him, using a phrase that could imply direct hearing, as well as the lack thereof, such as “qaala” (he said).

Example: what Ibn Maajah reported by way of ‘Umar ibn ‘Abdil-‘Azeez, from ‘Uqbah ibn ‘Aamir in marfoo’ form, “May Allaah have mercy upon the sentry of the guards.” ^{Ibn Maajah} ‘Umar did not meet ‘Uqbah, as stated by al-Mizzee in al-Atraaf.

How it is Identified:

- 1- Scholars stating that a narrator did not meet the person he narrated from, or never heard anything from him
- 2- The narrator himself admitting that he did not meet the person he narrated from, or did not hear anything from him
- 3- The hadeeth coming from another route having an additional person between the narrator and the person whom he narrated from. There is some scholarly difference over this third point.

Ruling: da’eef because it is a type of munqati’

Most Renowned Works:

- at-Tafseel li-Mubham al-Maraaseel, by al-Khateeb al-Baghdaadee ^{d.463}

Mu'an'an

Definition:

- Literally: from the verb ‘an’ana, meaning to say “‘an...’an...” (from...from...)
- Technically: the narrator saying, “Person A ‘an Person B”

Example: what Ibn Maajah reported saying: ‘Uthmaan ibn Abee Shaybah narrated to us saying, Mu’aawiyah ibn Hishaam narrated to us saying, Sufyaan narrated to us, ‘an (from) Usaamah ibn Zayd, ‘an (from) ‘Uthmaan ibn ‘Urwah, ‘an (from) ‘Urwah, ‘an (from) ‘Aa’ishah that she said, “the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, ‘Indeed, Allaah and His angels send salaah upon those who pray in the rightmost part of the row.’” ^{Ibn Maajah}

Is it Considered Muttasil or Munqati’?

- 1- There is an opinion that it is munqati’ until its being connected is clearly established
- 2- The correct view which is implemented, and that which is held by the majority of scholars of hadeeth, fiqh and usool, is that it is muttasil if it fulfills certain conditions. They have agreed upon two of these conditions, and differed in stipulating others. As for the two conditions agreed upon as being necessary, and which Muslim views to be adequate, they are:
 - a) The mu’an’in (i.e. person who used the term ‘an) is not mudallis
 - b) It is possible for the mu’an’in and the person from whom he narrated to have met Conditions which are differed over
 - a) Establishing that they met: the view of al-Bukhaaree, Ibn al-Madeenee and the and others
 - b) Having accompanied each other for a long time: the opinion of Abul-Muthaffar as-Sam’aanee
 - c) Being known for narrating from him: opinion of Aboo ‘Amr ad-Daanee

Mu'annan

Definition:

- Literally: from the verb annana, meaning to say “‘anna...anna...” (that...that...)
- Technically: the narrator saying, “Person A narrated to us anna Person B said...”

Ruling:

- 1- According to Ahmad and a group of scholars, it is munqati’ until its being connected is established.
- 2- According to the majority, it is just like the mu’an’an, and is deemed to be direct hearing when the same aforementioned conditions are fulfilled.

Mawḍoo‘

Literally: placed down

Technically: invented, fabricated lie attributed to the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ)

Introductory Points

Reasons Behind Wad‘, Ways Used, Most Renowned Works

Rank: it is the worst type of da‘eef hadeeth. Some scholars classify it as an independent category, not belonging to the da‘eef hadeeth.

Ruling on Narrating it: impermissible by scholarly consensus, unless accompanied by clarification of it being mawḍoo‘. This is according to the hadeeth from Muslim, “Whoever narrates something from me which is known to be a lie, then he is one of the two liars.” Introduction to Saheeh Muslim, with explanation of an-Nawawee

Methods of Identifying Wad‘ (Fabrication):

- 1- Admission of the waadi‘ (fabricator): such as the confession of Aboo ‘Ismah Nooh ibn Abee Maryam, who admitted to fabricating ahaaadeeth about the virtues of the chapters of the Qur’aan and attributing them to Ibn ‘Abbaas.
- 2- Something that qualifies as admission: such as someone narrating a hadeeth from a shaykh, then being asked about his own date of birth; and he responds with a date showing that the shaykh had passed away before his birth, yet that hadeeth is not known from anyone except him.
- 3- Certain quality of the narrator: such as being a Raafidee, and the hadeeth being about the virtues of Ahl al-Bayt
- 4- Certain quality of the narration: such as being poorly worded, or being contrary to sense perception and the clear texts of the Qur’aan

Method of the Scholars in Combatting Wad‘ (Fabrication):

- 1- Adherence to the isnaad: they adhered to it in the narration of ahaaadeeth, because the sanad to a report is like lineage to a human being; so much so that it became mandatory for the muhaddith to clearly state the lineage of what he narrated.
- 2- Increase of scholastic activity and inquiry in the area of hadeeth: such as traveling for their acquisition, investigation, verification, caution when narrating, spread of great scholars and authorities throughout the Islaamic world, and clarification of rejected narrations from the accepted.
- 3- Tracking of liars: in order to combat story-tellers and liars, and warn people about them
- 4- Clarifying the conditions of narrators: by scrutinizing their lives and knowing their conditions, they would criticize and validate them. This gave rise to the science of al-Jarh wat-Ta‘deel.
- 5- Defining principles for identifying mawḍoo‘ narrations: in order to know the signs of fabrication in the sanad and matn, or what could be deduced from the condition of a narrator.

Reasons Behind Wad‘:

- 1- Seeking nearness to Allaah: by fabricating narrations encouraging people to do good, or discouraging from doing evil.
- 2- Supporting a mathhab: especially that of a political faction such as the Khawarij, Shee‘ah, and others.
- 3- Defaming Islaam: as done by the heretics, who were not able to scheme against Islaam openly.
- 4- Seeking favor with the rulers: by fabricating ahaaadeeth suiting the deviance of the rulers.
- 5- Seeking wealth and livelihood: such as some of the story tellers who would earn money by narrating to the people.
- 6- Seeking fame: by inventing strange reports not found with the shuyookh of hadeeth; altering the sanad of the hadeeth to make it seem strange.

Methods of the Karraamiyyah in Fabricating Hadeeth: they say it is only permissible for targheeb (encouragement) and tarheeb (warning). They use as proof what has been narrated in some routes of the hadeeth “Whoever lies on me intentionally,” where there is the added sentence “in order to misguide people” which is an addition that is not established. Thus, some of them make the claim, “We are lying for him, not on him.” This completely contradicts scholarly consensus, and al-Juwaynee was extremely strict in this regard, where he actually declared the kufr (disbelief) of the waddaa‘een (fabricators).

Manners in Which the Waddaa‘een Would Formulate Hadeeth:

- 1- Formulating a statement on their own, then fabricating an isnaad for it
- 2- Taking the speech of wise people and others, then fabricating an isnaad for it

Matrook, Munkar and its Opposite, Ma'roof

Matrook – Literally: abandoned

Munkar – Literally: disapproved

Technically: has in its isnaad a narrator accused of lying

Technically: has in its isnaad a narrator who makes gross errors, is negligent, or is openly sinful; could also mean what a da'eef narrator reports in contradiction to a thiqah

Reasons for Accusing a Narrator of Lying:

- 1- The hadeeth is not reported except through him, and it contradicts well-known, established principles
- 2- He is known for lying in his normal speech, though lying does not appear from him in the Prophetic hadeeth

Example: the hadeeth of ‘Amr ibn Shamir al-Ju‘fee al-Koofee ash-Shee‘ee, from Jaabir, from Abuṭ-Tufayl, from ‘Alee and ‘Ammar, that the two of them said, “the Prophet (ﷺ) used to perform qunoot in the fajr prayer, and he would begin making the takbeer after the Ghadaah (i.e. Thuhr) prayer on the day of ‘Arafah and stop at the ‘Asr prayer on the last of the days of tashreeq”. An-Nasaa‘ee, ad-Daaraqutnee, and others, have said that ‘Amr ibn Shamir is matrook al-hadeeth (i.e. his hadeeth are abandoned).

Rank: follows the mawdooh hadeeth

Difference Between Mawdooh and Matrook:

Mawdooh*: an invented, fabricated narration which is worse than matrook

Matrook*: hadeeth whose narrator is accused of lying, making many errors, open sinfulness, or negligence.

Difference Between it and Shaath

Shaath*: what an acceptable narrator reports, in contradiction to someone who is more reliable than him

Munkar*: what a da'eef narrator reports in contradiction to a thiqah

Both share the common feature of contradicting others, but they differ in that the narrator of the shaath is acceptable, while the narrator of the munkar is da'eef.

Example:

1- For the first definition: what was reported by an-Nasaa‘ee and ibn Maajah by way of Aboo Zukayr Yahyaa ibn Muhammad ibn Qays, from Hishaam ibn ‘Urwah, from his father, from ‘Aa‘ishah in marfoo‘ form: “Eat fresh dates with dried dates. Verily, if the son of Adam eats them, shaytaan becomes upset.” An-Nasaa‘ee said, “This is a munkar hadeeth. Aboo Zukayr was the only one to narrate it, and he was an acceptable shaykh. Muslim collected mutaaba‘aat (supporting narrations) from him. However, his narrations did not reach the level of being accepted on their own.”

2- For the second definition: what was reported by Ibn Abee Haatim by way of Hubayyib ibn Habeeb az-Zayyaat, from Aboo Ishaaq, from al-‘Ayzaar ibn Hurayth, from Ibn ‘Abbaas, from the Prophet (ﷺ) that he said, “Whoever establishes the prayer, gives the Zakaah, performs Hajj, fasts Ramadaan, and honors his guest shall enter Jannah.” Aboo Haatim said, “It is munkar because other narrators who are thiqaat reported it in mawqoof form from Aboo Ishaaq, and that is the ma‘roof narration.”

Rank: among the types of da'eef jiddan, following matrook

Definition of the Ma‘roof Hadeeth:

– Literally: recognized; the opposite of munkar (disapproved)

– Technically: what is narrated by a thiqah in contradiction to what has been reported by a da'eef narrator

Example: the second example mentioned above for the munkar, but by way of the thiqaat who reported it as mawqoof from Ibn ‘Abbaas, since Ibn Abee Haatim said, “It is munkar because other narrators who are thiqaat reported it in mawqoof form from Aboo Ishaaq, and that is the ma‘roof narration.”

Mu'allal

Literally: also mu'all; defective Technically: has a defect which impairs its authenticity, although it appears to be free from such a defect

Mudraj

Literally: placed into and made part of something else

Technically: context of its isnaad has been modified, or something was interjected into its matn which is not actually part of it, and no distinction was made

Introductory Points

Reasons for Idraaj (Interjection):

- 1- Clarifying a legal ruling
- 2- Deducing a legal ruling from the hadeeth before finishing it
- 3- Explaining an obscure wording in the hadeeth

How Idraaj is Identified:

- 1- Occurring separately in another narration
- 2- Scholars mentioning it as being such
- 3- The narrator admitting that he interjected the statement
- 4- The impossibility of the Prophet (ﷺ) saying it

Ruling on Idraaj: prohibited, unless done to explain an obscure wording

Categories and Most Renowned Works

1- Mudraj al-Isnaad: the context of its isnaad has been modified

One of its forms: the narrator mentions the isnaad, but due to a temporary disturbance, he interjects a statement from himself. As a result, some of those who hear him think that his statement is the matn for that isnaad, and they narrate it from him that way.

Example: the story behind the narration of Thaabit ibn Moosaa az-Zaahid (i.e. pious, ascetic), “Whoever prays much at night, his face will appear beautiful during the day.” ^{Ibn Maajah} It originated from Thaabit ibn Moosaa entering the gathering of Shareek ibn ‘Abdillaah al-Qaadee during his dictation while he was saying, “al-A‘mash narrated to us, from Aboo Sufyaan, from Jaabir who said, ‘The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said...’” and then he paused so that the mustamlee (assistant who repeats what is said) could write. He then looked towards Thaabit and said, “Whoever prays much at night, his face will appear beautiful during the day,” intending by that a reference to Thaabit and his pious disposition. However, Thaabit presumed it to be the matn for the foregoing isnaad, and he used to narrate it as such.

2- Mudraj al-Matn: where something was interjected into the matn which is not actually a part of it, and no distinction was made. The interjection could be at:

a) The beginning of the hadeeth. This does not happen often, but it is more common than occurring in the middle of the hadeeth. It occurs when the narrator makes a statement then immediately narrates a hadeeth, intending to use it as proof for his statement, but making no distinction between them. Consequently, the listener mistakenly presumes everything said to be a hadeeth. For example, al-Khateeb reported by way of Aboo Qaṭan and Shabaabah – mentioning them separately – from Shu‘bah, from Muḥammad ibn Ziyaad, from Aboo Hurayrah who said, “The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, “Perform wudoo’ in a complete fashion. Woe to the heels from the Fire.”” The statement “Perform wudoo’ in a complete fashion” is mudraj from Aboo Hurayrah as is clear in the narration of al-Bukhaaree from Aadam, from Shu‘bah, from Muḥammad ibn Ziyaad, from Aboo Hurayrah who said, “Perform wudoo’ in a complete fashion because Abul-Qaasim (ﷺ) said, ‘Woe to the heels from the Fire.’”

b) The middle of the hadeeth. This is less frequent than the first. For example, the hadeeth of ‘Aa’ishah about the beginning of revelation, “The Prophet (ﷺ) used to yatahannath in the cave of Hiraah’ – meaning ta’abbud (devoting himself to worship) – for a number of nights.” ^{al-Bukhaaree} The statement “meaning ta’abbud (devoting himself to worship)” is mudraj from az-Zuhree.

c) The end of the hadeeth. This is the most frequent. For example, the marfoo’ hadeeth of Aboo Hurayrah, “The pious slave has a double reward. By He in whose hand is my soul, were it not for striving in the path of Allaah, Hajj, and being dutiful to my mother, I would have loved to die as a slave.” ^{al-Bukhaaree} The statement “By He in whose hand is my soul...” is the speech of Aboo Hurayrah because it is impossible for it to have emanated from the Prophet (ﷺ) since he could not have wished to be enslaved, and also since his mother was not alive for him to be dutiful to her.

Maqloob

Literally: reversed

Technically: reversal or substitution of a word with another, either in the sanad or matn of a hadeeth

Reasons, and Ruling on What it Produces

Reasons for it and Ruling on What it Produces:

1- A narrator intending to make his narration seem novel, thus encouraging people to narrate from him.

Ruling: impermissible, because it involves altering the hadeeth, as done by the waddaa'een (fabricators).

2- Done for the purpose of examining and confirming the memory and dabt of the muhaddith.

Ruling: permissible for verifying the memory and qualification of the muhaddith, but with the condition that this objective is made clear before the conclusion of the sitting.

3- Resulting from unintentional error.

Ruling: someone who does so is excused, but if he does this often it takes away from his dabt and renders him da'eef.

Ruling on the Maqloob Hadeeth: rejected

Categories:

1- Maqloob as-Sanad: reversal or substitution that occurs in the sanad, which has two forms:

a) Reversing a narrator's name and the name of his father; such as a hadeeth originally reported from "Ka'b ibn Murrah", but the narrator reverses it and reports it from "Murrah ibn Ka'b."

b) Substituting a narrator's name with another for the purpose of making the sanad seem novel, such as a mashhoor hadeeth from "Saalim" but the narrator reports it as being from "Naafi'."

Example: Hamaad ibn 'Amr an-Naseeb narrated from al-A'mash, from Abou Saalih, from Abou Hurayrah, in marfoo' form, "If you meet the polytheists along the road, do not initiate the greeting of salaam with them." This is a maqloob hadeeth. Hamaad performed the substitution by reporting it from al-A'mash, whereas it was actually from Suhayl ibn Abee Saalih, from his father, from Abou Hurayrah.

2- Maqloob al-Matn: reversal or substitution that occurs in the matn, which has two forms:

a) Reversing the order of words in a portion of the matn

Example: The hadeeth of Abou Hurayrah collected by Muslim about the seven people to whom Allaah will give His Shade on the day when there will be no shade but His. It contains the passage, "A man who gives charity and conceals it such that his right hand does not know what his left hand has spent." In this particular passage, some narrators have reversed the order of words. It is supposed to read, "Such that his left hand does not know what his right hand has spent." ^{al-Bukhaaree}

b) Giving the matn of one hadeeth the isnaad of another, and giving its isnaad to the matn of another, and so on, for examination and other purposes.

Example: What the people of Baghdaad did with al-Imaam al-Bukhaaree, when they intentionally made one hundred hadeeth maqloob, and asked him about them to test his memory. Upon being questioned, he restored them to their initial state, prior to being rendered maqloob, not making a single mistake.

Al-Mazeed fee Muttaṣil al-Asaaneed

Literally: mazeed means added; muttaṣil is the opposite of munqaṭi'; and asaaneed is the plural of isnaad
Technically: the addition of a narrator somewhere in a sanad which appears to be connected

Example and Most Renowned Works	Conditions for Rejecting the Addition	Objections Against Claiming There is an Addition
What Ibn al-Mubaarak narrated saying: Sufyaan narrated to us, from ‘Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Yazeed who said, Busr ibn ‘Ubaydillaah narrated to me saying, I heard Aboo Idrees who said, I heard Waathilah saying, I heard Aboo Marthad saying, I heard the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) saying, “Do not sit on graves and do not pray towards them.” The Addition in this Example: it occurs in two spots. The first is the word “Sufyaan” and the second is “Aboo Idrees.” The additions in these two spots were made by mistake. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1- The addition of Sufyaan is a mistake made by whoever came after Ibn al-Mubaarak, because a number of thiqaat narrated this hadeeth from Ibn al-Mubaarak, from ‘Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Yazeed. Some of them clearly stated that ikhbaar (i.e. being told directly) took place.2- The addition of Aboo Idrees is a mistake from Ibn al-Mubaarak, because a number of thiqaat narrated this hadeeth from ‘Abdur-Rahmaan without making mention of Aboo Idrees. Some of them clearly stated that Busr heard directly from Waathilah. Most Renowned Works on the Subject: - Tamyeez al-Mazeed fee Muttaṣil al-Asaaneed, by al-Khaṭṭeab al-Baghdadee ^{d.462}	There are two conditions stipulated for rejecting the addition and deeming it to be a mistake: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1- That the person who did not add anything be a more precise narrator than the one who made an addition2- That a clear statement of direct hearing replace the addition If one or both conditions are not fulfilled, the addition is given preference and accepted, while the isnaad without the addition is considered munqaṭi'. Mudtarib

Literally: disrupted; from the word idtiraab

Technically: narrated from various different routes, all of equal strength

Expanded Definition

It is the hadeeth which has been reported in ways conflicting with each other such that it is not at all possible to reconcile between them. Furthermore, all of those narrations are equal in strength from all angles, making it impossible to select one of them over the rest using any method of tarjeeh (weighing and giving precedence).

Introductory Points

Conditions Causing Idtiraab:

- 1- Different narrations of the hadeeth such that reconciliation between them is not possible
- 2- Equal strength of the narrations, such that it is not possible to give precedence to one over another

Idtiraab Can Stem From:

- 1- A single narrator who narrates the hadeeth in different ways
- 2- A group, where each of them narrates the hadeeth in a way that contradicts the narration of others

Reason for Mudtarib being Da'eef:

Most Renowned Works:

- al-Muqtarib fee Bayaan al-Mudtarib, by Ibn Hajar ^{d.852}

Categories

1-Mudtarib as-Sanad:

Example: the hadeeth of Aboo Bakr (ؓ) where he said, "O Messenger of Allaah! I see your hair has become grey." He replied, "(Soorah Hood and its sisters have made me grey." ^{at-Tirmithi}
Ad-Daaraqutnee stated, "This is mudtarib, since it is only narrated from the route of Aboo Ishaaq, and it is reported in about ten different ways. Some narrated it as mursal; others as mawsool; others as musnad from Aboo Bakr; others as musnad from Sa'd; and others as musnad from 'Aa'ishah... and its narrators are all thiqaat, making it impossible to give precedence to some of them over others, and reconciling between the narrations is not possible either.

2-Mudtarib al-Matn:

Example: the hadeeth of Faatimah bint Qays (ؓ) where she said, "The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) was asked about zakaah, and he said, 'Property is liable rights other than zakaah.'" ^{at-Tirmithi} It was also reported from the same route with the wording, "Property is not liable to any right except zakaah." ^{Ibn Maajah}
Al-'Iraaqee stated, "This is an instance of idtiraab which cannot be interpreted."

Musahhaf and Muharraf

Literally: from tas-heef, which is a mistake in writing

Technically: altering a particular phrase, whether in wording or meaning, to something which was not narrated by thiqaat

Introductory Points

Differences, Reasons, and Renowned Works

Its Importance: revealing mistakes committed by some narrators

Categories:

1- With respect to where it occurs, which has two subcategories:

a) Tas-heef in the isnaad

Example: the hadeeth of Shu'bah from al-'Awwam ibn Muraajim. Ibn Ma'een committed tas-heef saying, "from al-'Awwam ibn Muzaahim."

b) Tas-heef in the matn

Example: the hadeeth of Zayd ibn Thaabit that the Prophet (ﷺ) ihtajara (made an enclosure for himself) in the masjid. Ibn Lahee'ah committed tas-heef saying, "ihtajama (had blood-letting performed on him) in the masjid."

2- With respect to where it stems from, which has two subcategories:

a) Tas-heef of eyesight: this is the more common type, where the writing is unclear to the sight of the reader, either due to poor handwriting or lack of dots.

Example: "Whoever fasts Ramadaan and follows it with sittan (six) from Shawwaal..." Aboo Bakr as-Soolee committed tas-heef saying, "Whoever fasts Ramadaan and follows it with shay'an (something) from Shawwaal...", changing "sittan" to "shay'an."

b) Tas-heef of hearing: caused by poor hearing or the listener being at a distance, or something similar. Hence the words become unclear especially in the case where they follow the same pattern.

Example: a hadeeth reported from 'Aasim al-Ahwal, where some committed tas-heef saying from "Waaasil al-Ahdab"

3- With respect to wording or meaning, which has two subcategories:

a) Wording: this is more common, as in the previous examples.

b) Meaning: the narrator retains the same wording, but he understands and interprets it differently from what is intended.

Example: the statement of Aboo Moosaa al-'Anazee, "We are a people of excellence. We are from 'Anazah, and the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) prayed towards us." By this, he meant the hadeeth where the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed toward 'anazah, which actually means a spear placed as a barrier in front of a person who is praying. Hence, he mistakenly understood that the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed toward his tribe.

Difference Between Musahhaf and Muharraf: the earlier scholars did not differentiate between them, but instead made them synonymous. However, some scholars distinguished between them as follows:

1- Musahhaf: altering the placement of dots on the letters, while the form of the letters remained intact

2- Muharraf: altering the vowelings of the letters, while retaining the form of the word. For instance, the hadeeth of Jaabir, "On the day of Ahzaab, Ubayy received the wound of an arrow in his medial arm vein, and the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) cauterised it." Some committed tas-heef saying "Abee," in reference to Jaabir's father. However, the person actually intended was Ubayy ibn Ka'b, since Jaabir's father had already been martyred during the Battle of Uhud.

Tas-heef* impairing the Dabt of a Narrator:

1- If it happens from him rarely, it does no harm, because no one is free from small errors or minor tas-heef

2- If it happens from him often, it impairs his dabt, and indicates that he is unfit as a narrator.

Reasons for Tas-heef Occurring:

1- Primarily caused by taking hadeeth only from books and written material, rather than shuyookh. That is why the scholars cautioned against taking hadeeth from someone who was a "sahafee" (i.e. only took from books and papers), where they said, "Hadeeth are not to be taken from a sahafee."

2- Poor hearing

3- Poor vision

4- Poor handwriting

Shaath and its Opposite, Mahfooth

Definition:

- Literally: to be solitary
- Technically: what an acceptable narrator reports in contradiction to someone more reliable than him

Where Does Shuthooth Occur?

1- In the sanad

Example: what at-Tirmithe_e, an-Nasaa'ee, and ibn Maajah reported by way of Ibn 'Uyaynah, from 'Amr ibn Deenaar, from 'Awsajah, from Ibn 'Abbaas that "a man passed away during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) leaving behind no one to inherit him except a mawlaa whom he had set free." Ibn Jurayj and others also report it with a connected isnaad like Ibn 'Uyaynah. However, Hamaad ibn Zayd contradicted them, by reporting from 'Amr ibn Deenaar, from 'Awsajah, and he did not mention Ibn 'Abbaas. This is why Aboo Haatim said, "The mahfooth hadeeth is that of Ibn 'Uyaynah." Hamaad ibn Zayd is among the narrators who possess adaalah and dabt, yet Aboo Haatim gave precedence to the narration of those who were greater than him in number.

2- In the matn

Example: what Aboo Daawood and at-Tirmithe_e reported by way of 'Abdul-Waahid ibn Ziyaad, from al-A'mash, from Aboo Saalih, from Aboo Hurayrah in marfoo' form, "If one of you performs the Fajr prayer, then he should lie on his right side." Al-Bayhaqee stated that 'Abdul-Waahid contradicted a large number of narrators about this, since they only reported it as an action of the Prophet (ﷺ), not as a statement of his. 'Abdul-Waahid was the only thiqah among the students of al-A'mash to narrate it with this wording.

Ruling on the Shaath Narration: rejected

The Opposite of Shaath is the Mahfooth Hadeeth:

Definition: what a more reliable narrator reports in contradiction to a thiqah

Example:

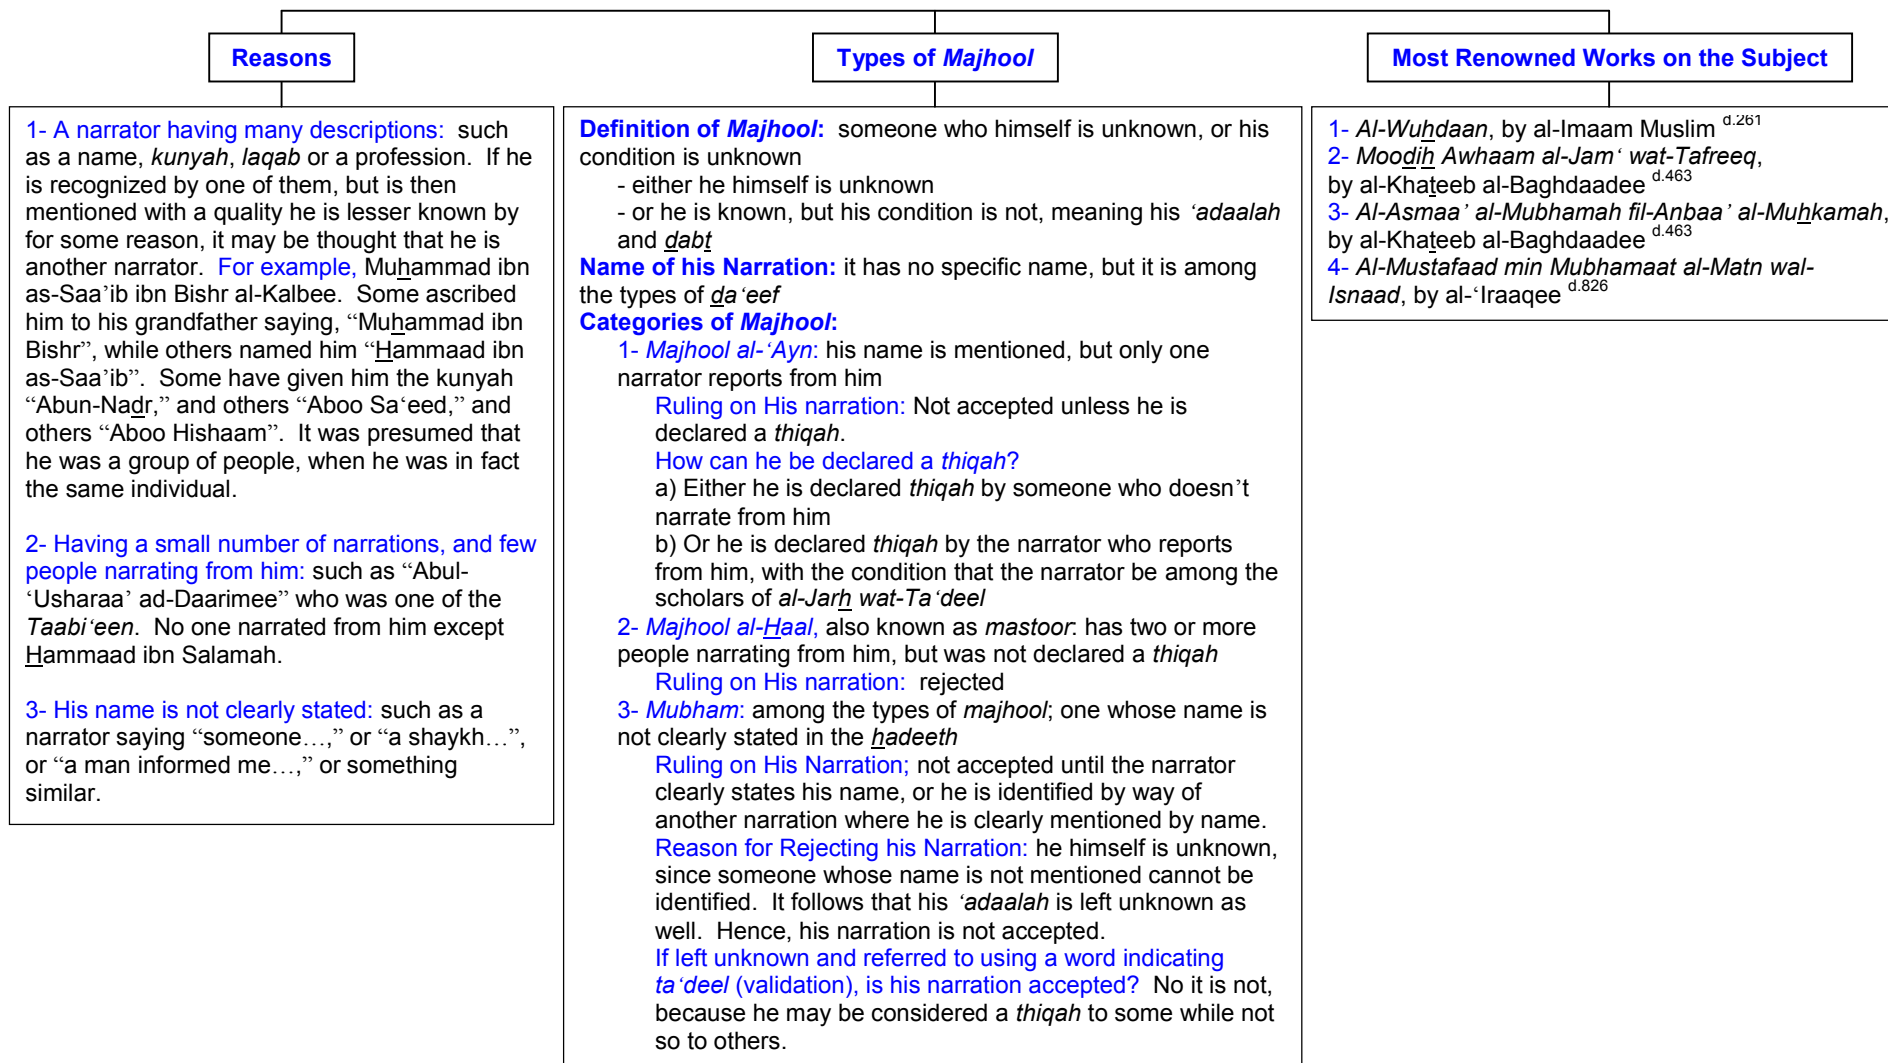

- 1- What at-Tirmithe_e, an-Nasaa'ee, and ibn Maajah reported by way of Ibn 'Uyaynah, from 'Amr ibn Deenaar, from 'Awsajah, from Ibn 'Abbaas that "a man passed away during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) leaving behind no one to inherit him except a mawlaa whom he had set free."
- 2- What Aboo Daawood and at-Tirmithe_e reported by way of 'Abdul-Waahid ibn Ziyaad, from al-A'mash, from Aboo Saalih, from Aboo Hurayrah in marfoo' form, "If one of you performs the Fajr prayer, then he should lie on his right side."

Ruling on the Mahfooth Narration: accepted

Jahaalah of a Narrator

Literally: from jahl, meaning ignorance

Technically: not knowing who a narrator is, or not knowing or his condition

Bid'ah and Soo' al-Hifth

Bid'ah – Literally: innovation Technically: anything newly invented after the Prophet (ﷺ), such as inclinations and actions
Sayyi' al-Hifth – the person who errs more often than not

Bid'ah

Types:

- 1- Bid'ah Mukaffirah: renders the person who commits it a kaafir, such as holding a belief that necessitates kufr. Narrations are rejected from someone who denies a well-established matter from the religion, or holds a belief contrary to it.
- 2- Bid'ah Mufassiqah: renders the person who commits it a faasiq, but not a kaafir.

Ruling on the Narration of a Mubtadi' (Innovator):

- 1- If his bid'ah is mukaffirah, his narration is rejected
- 2- If his bid'ah is mufassiqah, the correct view, held by the majority of the scholars, is that his narration is accepted with two conditions:
 - a) He does not promote his bid'ah
 - b) He does not narrate anything that promotes his bid'ah

Does the Narration of a Mubtadi' have a Specific Name? No; his hadeeth is among the types which are rejected unless the foregoing conditions are fulfilled.

Soo' al-Hifth

Types:

1- Someone who has poor memory from childhood, and it remains so throughout the stages of his life. His narration is called shaath, according to the opinion of some scholars of hadeeth.

Ruling on His Narration: rejected

2- Poor memory resulting from old age, blindness, or books being burnt. He is also called mukhtaliq (i.e. confuses things and mixes between them)

Ruling on His Narration: conditional based on the following details:

- a) What he is known to have narrated before ikhtilaaq (confusion; mix-up) took place is accepted
- b) What he narrated after ikhtilaaq is rejected
- c) If it is unclear whether the narration took place before or after ikhtilaaq, no ruling is made until such can be distinguished

Types of Narrations Which Could be Either Accepted or Rejected

Qudsee and Marfoo‘

Qudsee – Literally: from “quds”, meaning purity
Marfoo‘ – Literally: raised

Technically: any narration from the Prophet (ﷺ) with its isnaad reaching Allaah
Technically: any statement, action, approval, or description attributed to the Prophet (ﷺ)

Difference Between it and the Qur’aan:

- 1- The Qur’aan is from Allaah in both wording and meaning, while the qudsee hadeeth is from Allaah in meaning and from the Prophet (ﷺ) in wording
- 2- Recitation of the Qur’aan is an act of worship in itself, while recital of the qudsee hadeeth is not
- 3- Authenticity of the Qur’aan is established by mutawaatir narration only, while the qudsee hadeeth could be authentic without being mutawaatir

Difference Between it and Nabawee Hadeeth:

The qudsee hadeeth is from Allaah in meaning and from the Prophet (ﷺ) in wording, while the nabawee hadeeth is from the Prophet (ﷺ) in both wording and meaning.

Number of Qudsee Hadeeth: more than two hundred

Example: The hadeeth of Aboo Tharr (ؓ) where the Prophet (ﷺ) said while narrating from Allaah (tabaaraka wa ta’aalaa) that He said, “O My servants, I have prohibited oppression upon Myself and have prohibited it between you, so do not oppress each other.” Muslim

Wordings Used for Narrating:

- 1- The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, while narrating from his Lord (),...
- 2- Allaah (ta’aalaa) said, in what His Messenger (ﷺ) narrated from Him,...

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

- Al-Ithaafaat as-Saniyyah bil-Ahadeeth al-Qudsiyyah, by ‘Abdur-Ra’oof al-Manaawee ^{d.1031} in which he collected 272 ahadeeth

Expanded Definition: any statement, action, approval, or description attributed to the Prophet (ﷺ), whether the attributer is a Sahaabee or someone from later generations, and regardless of whether the isnaad is muttasil or munqati’. Hence, the classification marfoo‘ can apply to narrations which are mawsool, mursal, muttasil, and munqati’.

Types:

- 1- Marfoo‘ Qawlee (Statement): such as when the Sahaabee or someone else says, “The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said...”
- 2- Marfoo‘ Fi’lee (Action): such as when the Sahaabee or someone else says, “The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) did...”
- 3- Marfoo‘ Taqreere (Approval): such as when the Sahaabee or someone else says, “...was done in the presence of the Prophet (ﷺ)” and he does not narrate any disapproval for what was done.
- 4- Marfoo‘ Wasfee (Description): such as when the Sahaabee or someone else says, “The Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) was the best of people in character.”

Mawqoof

Literally: stopped

Technically: any statement, action, or approval attributed to a Sahaabee

Expanded Definition

Any statement, action, or approval attributed to a Sahaabee, or group of Sahaabah, whether the sanad is muttasil or munqati'.

Examples:

- 1- Mawqoof Qawlee: such as the narrator saying, “‘Alee ibn Abee Taa-lib (ؓ) said, ‘Speak to the people in a way they can comprehend. Do you want Allaah and His Messenger to be belied?’” al-Bukhaaree
- 2- Mawqoof Fi'lee: such as al-Bukhaaree’s statement, “‘Ibn ‘Abbaas led the prayer after having performed tayammum.” Al-Bukhaaree
- 3- Mawqoof Taqreeree: such as one of the Taabi'een saying, “‘I did (a certain action) in front of one of the Sahaabah and he did not express disapproval.”

Alternative Usage of Mawqoof: used in reference to what has been reported from other than the Sahaabah, but only when qualified, such as saying, “‘This hadeeth was narrated as mawqoof from az-Zuhree”, or “‘mawqoof from ‘Aṭaa’,” and so on.

Terms Used by Scholars of Fiqh from Khuraasaan

- Marfoo': they know it as khbaar
- Mawqoof: they know it as athar

Marfoo' Hukman (in Ruling): the mawqoof narration given the ruling of being marfoo' from the Prophet (ﷺ), due the impossibility of it being from the Sahaabee.

Categories of Mawqoof in Wording, but Marfoo' Hukman

- 1- A Sahaabee not known for narrating from Ahlul-Kitaab (People of the Book) says something having no room for independent interpretation, and no connection to explaining the language, or clarifying an obscure term. For example:
 - a) Narrations about past events, such as the beginning of creation
 - b) Narrations about future events, such as fierce wars, tribulations, and events on the Day of Judgement
 - c) Narrations about specific rewards or punishments resulting from certain actions
- 2- A Sahaabee does something having no room for independent interpretation. For example, ‘Alee (ؓ) praying Salaah al-Kusoof (prayer during a solar eclipse) and performing more than two rukoo' (bowings) in every rak'ah.
- 3- A Sahaabee reporting that they used to say or do certain things, or that they saw nothing wrong with certain things
 - a) If he indicated that occurred during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ), the correct view is that it is considered marfoo', such as the statement of Jaabir, “‘We used to practice ‘azl (withdrawal) during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ)” al-Bukhaaree, Muslim
 - b) If he did not indicate that, the majority of the scholars consider it mawqoof, such as the statement of Jaabir, “‘When we used to ascend, we would say ‘Allaahu Akbar’, and when descending we would say ‘Subhaanallaah’” al-Bukhaaree
- 4- A Sahaabee saying, “‘we were commanded to...”, or “‘we were prohibited from...”, or “‘...is from the sunnah”. For example:
 - a) The statement of some of the Sahaabah, “‘Bilaal was ordered to call out the athaan in even numbers, and the iqaamah in odd numbers” al-Bukhaaree, Muslim
 - b) The statement of Umm ‘Atiyyah, “‘We were prohibited from following funeral processions, but not strictly” al-Bukhaaree, Muslim
 - c) The statement of Aboo Qilaabah from Anas, “‘From the sunnah is that if someone is already married, and then marries a virgin, he should spend seven days with her.” al-Bukhaaree, Muslim
- 5- The narrator says one of the following four words in the hadeeth, when mentioning the Sahaabee: “‘yarfa'uhu,” or “‘yanmeehi,” or “‘yablughu bihi,” or “‘riwaayatan.” For example: the narration of al-A'raj, from Aboo Hurayrah – riwaayatan – that he said, “‘You will fight a people having small eyes.” Al-Bukhaaree

Ruling and Using as Proof

Ruling: a mawqoof narration could be

- Saheeh
- Hasan
- Da'eef

Usage as Proof if Saheeh

- 1- Generally speaking, mawqoof reports are not used as a proof, because they are statements and actions of Sahaabah. However, if proven saheeh, they lend strength to some da'eef hadeeth.
- 2- The marfoo' hukman is used as proof, just as marfoo'.

Maqṭoo‘

Literally: severed

Technically: any statement or action attributed to a Taabi‘ee, or anyone afterwards

Expanded Definition: any statement or action ascribed or attributed to a Taabi‘ee, or Taabi‘ at-Taabi‘ee (the generation after the Taabi‘een), or anyone from a later generation.

Difference between Maqṭoo‘ and Munqati‘:

Maqṭoo‘ is used in reference to the matn, and means any statement attributed to a Taabi‘ee or someone afterwards

Munqati‘ is used in reference to the isnaad, and means that the isnaad of the narration is not muttasil (connected); thus placing it among the categories of da‘eef hadeeth

Examples:

1- Maqṭoo‘ Qawlee: the statement of Al-Ḥasan Al-Baṣree regarding praying behind an innovator, “You can pray, while he will be guilty of his bid‘ah.” ^{al-Bukhaaree}

2- Maqṭoo‘ Fi‘lee: the statement of Ibraaheem ibn Muḥammad ibn al-Muntashir, “Masrooq used to let down the curtain between himself and his family, then direct his attention toward his prayer, while leaving them to their worldly affairs.”

Its Use as Proof:

The maqṭoo‘ narration cannot be used as a proof for any legal ruling, even if it is authentically attributed to the person who said it, since it is the saying or action of one of the Muslims. However, if there is a qareenah (supporting evidence) indicating that it is marfoo‘, such as some of the narrators saying “yarfa‘uhu” when mentioning a Taabi‘ee, it is then given the ruling of being marfoo‘ mursal.

Mawqoof and Maqṭoo‘ Most Likely Found In:

- 1- Muṣannaf of Ibn Abee Shaybah ^{d.235}
- 2- Muṣannaf of ‘Abdur-Razzaaq ^{d.211}
- 3- Tafseer of Ibn Jareer ^{d.310}
- 4- Tafseer of Ibn Abee Ḥaatim ^{d.327}
- 5- Tafseer of Ibn al-Munthir

Musnad and Muttaṣil

Musnad – Literally: ascribed or attributed

Technically: having a connected sanad that is marfooʻ to the Prophet (ﷺ)

Muttaṣil – Literally: connected; also called mawṣool

Technically: having a connected sanad whether it be marfooʻ or mawṣool

Musnad

Example: what al-Bukhaaree reported saying: ‘Abdullaah ibn Yoosuf narrated to us, from Maalik, from Abuz-Zinaad, from al-Aʻraj, from Aboo Hurayrah, who said that the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, “If a dog drinks from a vessel belonging to any of you, then he must wash it seven times.”’ ^{al-Bukhaaree} This is a ḥadeeth whose sanad is connected from beginning to end, and it is marfooʻ to the Prophet (ﷺ).

Muttaṣil

Examples:

1- Muttaṣil Marfooʻ: Maalik, from ibn Shihaab, from Saalim ibn ‘Abdillaah, from his father, from the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ), that he said...

2- Muttaṣil Mawṣool: Maalik, from Naafiʻ, from Ibn ‘Umar, that he said...

Calling the Report of a Taabiʻee Muttaṣil: al-‘Iraaqee has said, “As for reports from the Taabiʻeen – provided their asaaneed (chains of narration) are connected – they are not to be called muttaṣil unconditionally. However, if qualified, this is allowed and can be found in the comments of the scholars, such as, ‘This report is muttaṣil to Saʻeed ibn al-Musayyib, or az-Zuhree, or Maalik, etc.’ The reason is because such reports are called maqṭooʻ, and unrestrictedly calling them muttaṣil would be describing one thing with two contradictory terms.”

Ziyaadaat ath-Thiqaat

Ziyaadaat: plural of ziyaadah

Thiqaat: plural of thiqah, the narrator who possesses 'adl and dabt

Ziyaadah ath-Thiqaah: wordings in the narration of some thiqaat for a particular hadeeth which are additional to the narration of other thiqaat for the same hadeeth

Introductory Points

Most Renowned Scholars on the Subject:

- 1-Aboo Bakr 'Abdullaah ibn Muhammad ibn Ziyaad an-Naysaabooree
- 2-Aboo Nu'aym al-Jurjaanee
- 3-Abul-Waleed Hassaan ibn Muhammad al-Qurashee

Where They Occur

1-In the isnaad: by making a mawqoof narration marfoo', or making a mursal narration mawsool. The addition in the isnaad produces two main things which often take place:

- a) Discrepancy between mawsool and mursal
- b) Discrepancy between marfoo' and mawqoof

The scholars have devoted specific research to the remaining forms of additions in the isnaad, for example al-Mazeed fee Muttaasil al-Asaaneed. There are four scholarly opinions about accepting or rejecting the addition:

- a) Ruling in favor of the one who makes it mawsool or marfoo'. In other words, accepting the addition. This is the opinion held by the majority of scholars of fiqh and usool.
- b) Ruling in favor of the one who left it mursal or mawqoof. In other words, rejecting the addition. This is the opinion of most of the scholars of hadeeth.
- c) Ruling in favor of the majority. This is an opinion held by some scholars of hadeeth.
- d) Ruling in favor of the more precise. This is an opinion held by some scholars of hadeeth.

Example: The hadeeth "Marriage is not valid without a guardian." It was narrated by Yoonus ibn Abee Ishaaq as-Sabee'ee, and his son Israa'eel, and Qays ibn ar-Rabee', from Aboo Ishaaq as musnad and muttaasil. It was also reported by Sufyaan ath-Thawree and Shu'bah ibn al-Hajjaaj, from Aboo Ishaaq as mursal.

2- In the matn: by adding a word or phrase. There are three opinions as to the ruling it takes:

- a) Some scholars accepted it unrestrictedly
- b) Some reject it unrestrictedly
- c) Some reject the addition from the narrator who reported it initially without the addition, while they accept it from others

Ibn as-Salaah's Classification of Ziyaadah

Ibn as-Salaah's Classification of Ziyaadah according to Acceptance and Rejection:

1- An addition which does not contradict the narration of thiqaat or a more reliable narrator: It is accepted because it is like the hadeeth which has a statement narrated by only one thiqah among a group of thiqaat.

Example: What was reported by Muslim by way of 'Alee ibn Mus-hir, from al-A'mash, from Aboo Razeen and Aboo Saalih, from Aboo Hurayrah (ؓ), with the addition of the wording "then let him empty it out" in the hadeeth about a dog drinking from the vessel. The other huffath amongst the students of al-A'mash did not mention it, but instead narrated it as, "If a dog puts his tongue into the drinking vessel of any one of you, then let him wash it seven times." The addition here is similar to a narration reported only by 'Alee ibn Mus-hir, who is a thiqah. Thus, the addition is accepted in this case.

2- An addition which contradicts the narration of thiqaat or a more reliable narrator: It is rejected as has preceded in the explanation of shaath.

Example: The addition "The day of 'Arafah" in the hadeeth "The day of 'Arafah, the day of an-Nahr (i.e. the 10th of Thul-Hijjah), and the days of tashreeq (i.e. the 11th to 13th of Thul-Hijjah) are our celebration, the people of Islaam; and they are days of eating and drinking." No routes of narration for the hadeeth have the addition. The person who made it was Moosaa ibn 'Alee ibn Rabaah, from his father, from 'Uqbah ibn 'Aamir, and it is collected by at-Tirmitheeh, Aboo Daawood, and others.

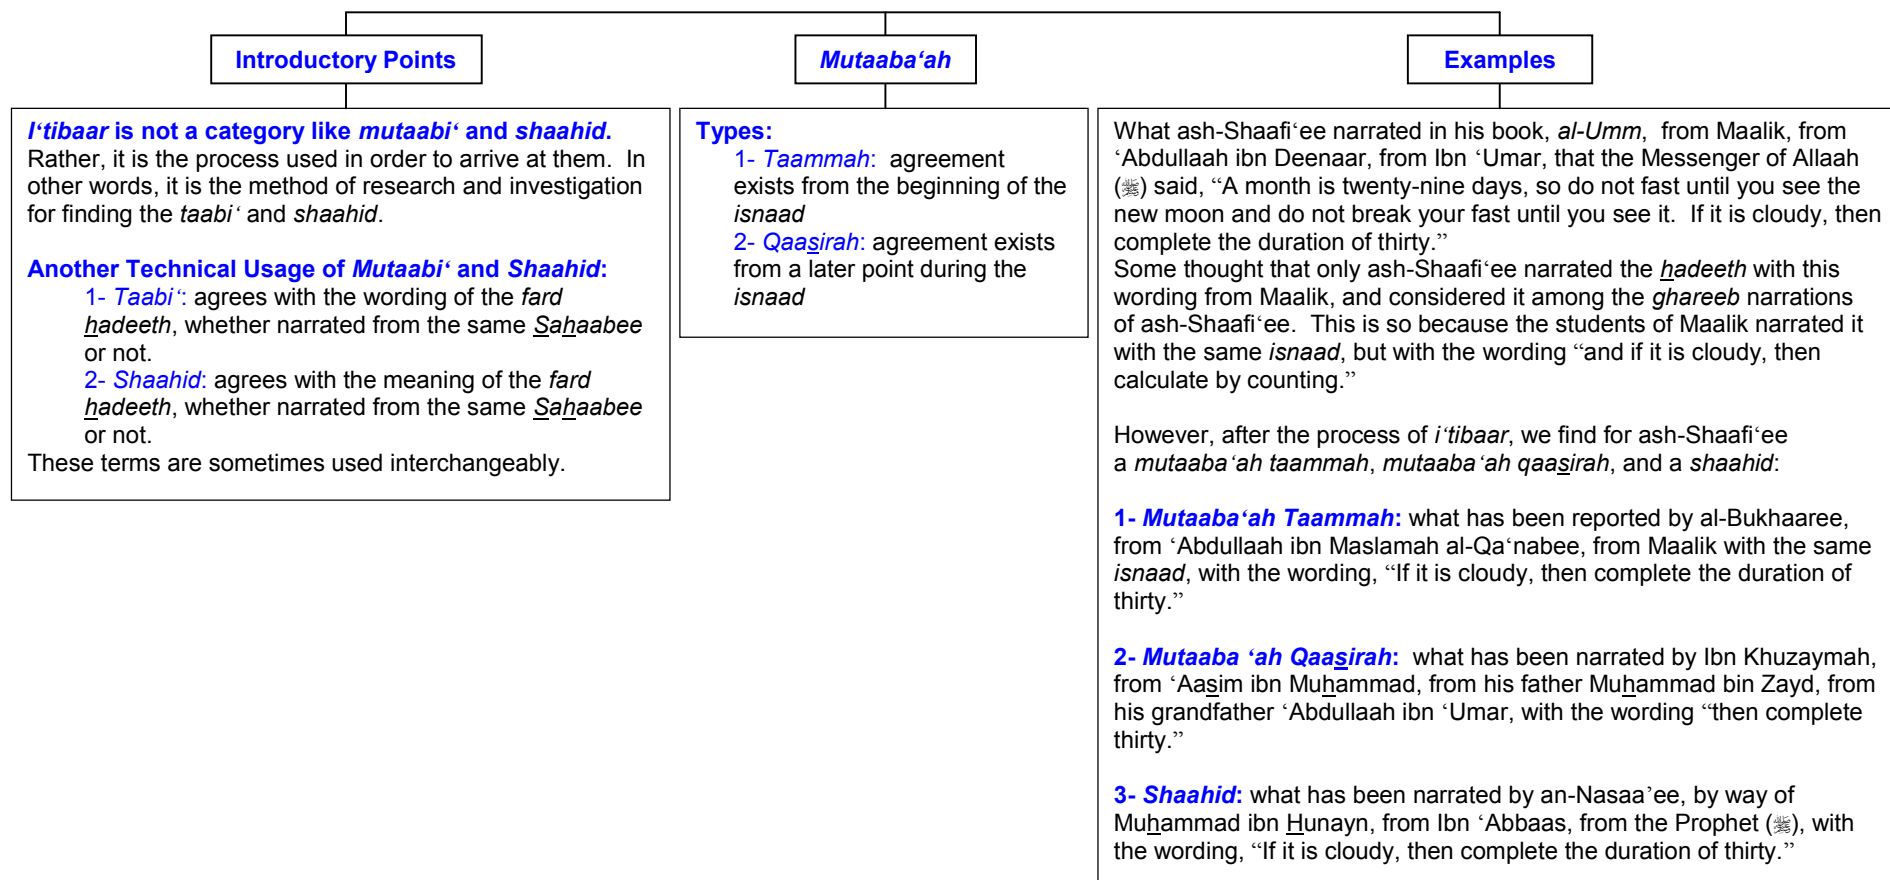

3- An addition which contains some form of contradiction to the narration of thiqaat, or a more reliable narrator. This contradiction can be summed up as being one of two things:

- a) Qualifying something absolute
- b) Specifying something general

Example: What Muslim reported by way of Aboo Maalik al-Ashja'ee, from Rib'ee, from Huthayfah who said, "the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, '... and all of the Earth has been made for us as a place of prostration; and its soil has been made as purification for us.'" Aboo Maalik al-Ashja'ee is the only one to narrate the addition "its soil", and no other narrators made mention of it. The hadeeth has only been narrated as "...and all of the Earth has been made for us as a place of prostration, and as purification."

I'tibaar, Mutaabi', and Shaahid

- I'tibaar – Literally: investigating matters and using them to know about other things of a similar nature
– Technically: scrutinizing the routes of a hadeeth which was only narrated by a single narrator, in order to know if anyone else narrated it as well
- Mutaabi' – Literally: agreeing; also called taabi'
– Technically: hadeeth that agrees with both wording and meaning, or meaning only, of a farid hadeeth, and is narrated from the same Sahaabee
- Shaahid – Literally: witness; serves as a witness that the farid hadeeth has a basis, and strengthens it just a witness strengthens and supports a claim that is made
– Technically: hadeeth that agrees with both wording and meaning, or meaning only, of a farid hadeeth, and is narrated from a different Sahaabee

The Narrator of Hadeeth

Conditions For Acceptance of Narrator

1- ‘Adaalah: that the narrator be:

- a) Muslim
- b) Baaligh (Mature)
- c) ‘Aaqil (Of sound mind)
- d) Free from things leading to fiṣq (open sinfulness)
- e) Free from khawaarim al-muroo‘ah (anything that compromises overall integrity)

Ways of Determining ‘Adaalah:

- 1- Statement to that effect: made by one or more scholars of ta‘deel (validation)
- 2- Prominent reputation: someone whose ‘adaalah is well-established with scholars, and is highly acclaimed, such as the Four Imaams, the two Suyfaans, and al-Awzaa‘ee

2- Dabt: that the narrator:

- a) Not contradict the thiqaat
- b) Not be sayyi‘ al-hifṭh (having poor memory)
- c) Not be faahish al-ghalaṭ (committing gross error)
- d) Not be known for ghaflah (negligence)
- e) Not be katheer al-awhaam (making many mistakes)

Ways of Determining Dabt: that the narrator agree with the thiqaat most of the time. Differing from them on the rare occasion is of no detriment.

Miscellaneous Rulings

Narration of the ‘Adl Narrator from Someone: according to most of the scholars, this does not amount to ta‘deel for that person (i.e. does not make him ‘adl as well).

A Scholar Implementing and Using a Hadeeth to Issue Verdicts: does not necessarily make it ṣaḥeeh

The Action of a Scholar in Contradiction to a Hadeeth: does not impair the authenticity of the hadeeth nor its narrators

Ruling on the Narration of Someone Who Repented from Fiṣq:

- 1- The narration of someone who repented from fiṣq is accepted
- 2- The narration of someone who repented from kathib (lying) in the hadeeth of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) is not accepted

Ruling on the Narration of Someone Who Took a Salary for Narrating:

- 1- Not accepted, according to some scholars such as Ahmad, Ishaq, and Aboo Haatim
- 2- Accepted, according to other scholars such as Aboo Nu‘aym al-Faḍl ibn Dukayn
- 3- In the case of someone who is prevented from earning a living due to narrating hadeeth, it is permissible for him to take a salary

Ruling on the Narration of Someone Who is Careless in Hearing or Narrating: not accepted, such as the case of someone who does not mind falling asleep at the time of listening

Ruling on the Narration of Someone Known for Accepting Talqeen, where he is told something, and he narrates it thereafter without actually knowing if it is one of his own hadeeth: not accepted

Ruling on the Narration of Someone Who Often Forgets When Narrating: not accepted

Definition of “Man Haddatha wa Nasiya”: The shaykh cannot remember narrating what his students narrate from him.

Ruling on His Narration:

- 1- Rejected if he completely negates the fact that he narrated it by saying, “I did not narrate it”
- 2- Accepted if he expressed reluctance in his negation, such as saying, “I don’t know it” or “I don’t recall it”

Does rejection of a hadeeth impair one of the two (i.e. the narrator and the shaykh)? No; because one of them is not more deserving of criticism than the other.

Example: at-Tirmithi and ibn Maajah reported by way of Rabee‘ah ibn Abee ‘Abdir-Rahmaan, from Suhayl ibn Abee Saalih, from his father, from Aboo Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) ruled in favor of a claimant who took an oath and had a witness.” ‘Abdul-‘Azeez ibn Muhammad ad-Daraawardee said, “Rabee‘ah ibn Abee ‘Abdir-Rahmaan narrated to me, from Suhayl. So, I went to meet Suhayl, and asked him about it, but he did not know of it. So I said, ‘Rabee‘ah narrated to me from you...’ After that, Suhayl began to say “‘Abdul-‘Azeez narrated to me from Rabee‘ah, from me that I narrated to him, from Aboo Hurayrah, in marfoo‘ form...”

General Overview of the Books on al-Jarh wat-Ta'deel

Jarh, Ta'deel, and Overview of Books on the Subject

Accepting Jarh (Disparagement) and Ta'deel (Validation) Without Explanation:

- 1- According to the most correct view, ta'deel is accepted without explanation, because its reasons are many, thus making it difficult to enumerate them.
- 2- Jarh is not accepted unless explained, because it is not difficult to mention the reasons behind it. Also, there are different reasons for disparagement, and someone may be undeservingly disparaged on grounds which are not valid.

Legitimacy of Jarh and Ta'deel Made by One Individual: the correct view is that it is legitimate.

If There are Both Jarh and Ta'deel for One Narrator: Jarh is given precedence as long as it is explained.

Categories of Books on al-Jarh wat-Ta'deel:

- 1- Those which deal specifically with thiqaat (trustworthy) narrators
- 2- Those which deal specifically with du'afaa' (weak) and majrooheen (disparaged) narrators
- 3- Those which are general and deal with thiqaat and du'afaa'
- 4- Those which deal only with narrators of specific books of hadeeth

Most Renowned Works on al-Jarh wat-Ta'deel

- 1- At-Taareekh al-Kabeer, by al-Bukhaaree ^{d.256} which is general, dealing with both thiqaat and du'afaa'
- 2- Al-Jarh wat-Ta'deel, by Ibn Abee Haatim which is general, dealing with both thiqaat and du'afaa'
- 3- Ath-Thiqaat, by Ibn Hibbaan ^{d.354} which deals specifically with thiqaat
- 4- Al-Kaamil fid-Du'afaa', by Ibn 'Adee which deals specifically with du'afaa'
- 5- Al-Kamaal fee Asmaa ar-Rijaal, by 'Abdul-Ghaneer al-Maqdisee ^{d.600} which deals specifically with the narrators found in the six books of hadeeth
- 6- Meezaan al-l'tidaal, by at-Thahabee ^{d.748} which deals specifically with du'afaa' and matrookeen (abandoned narrators)
- 7- Tahtheeb at-Tahtheeb, by Ibn Hajar ^{d.852}, which is one of the adaptations and abridgements of the book al-Kamaal

Grades of Jarh and Ta'deel along With Their Rulings

Grades of Ta'deel

Gradings of ta'deel underwent stages of development and finally settled on the following six:

- 1- Superlative form indicating trustworthiness and reliability
Example: athbat an-naas (the firmest of people); or awthaq (most trustworthy); or he is the awthaq person I have encountered.
- 2- Emphasis by using one or two descriptions indicating reliability
Example: thiqatun thiqah (reliable and trustworthy); or thiqatun thabt (trustworthy and of proven record); or thabtun hujjah (of proven record, and a proof); or thiqatun ma'moon (trustworthy and reliable)
- 3- Indicates reliability, but without emphasis
Example: thiqah; or hujjah (proof); or thabt (of proven record); or he is like a mus-haf; or 'adlun daabit (upright and retentive)
- 4- Indicates ta'deel (validation), but without the sense of dabt
Example: sadooq (honest); or mahalluhu as-sidq (generally truthful); or laa ba'sa bihi (no objection to him)
- 5- Indicates neither reliability nor disparagement
Example: shaykh; or people have narrated from him; or ilaa as-sidqi maa huwa (inclined to truthfulness); or wasat (acceptable); or shaykhun wasat
- 6- Indicates a sense of being near disparagement
Example: saalih al-hadeeth (fit to report hadeeth); or yuktabu hadeethuhu (his hadeeth are written); or yu'tabaru bihi (given consideration); or muqaarib al-hadeeth (average); or saalih (fair)

Rulings on These Gradings:

- 1- The first three: their narrations are used as proof, although some are stronger than others
- 2- Fourth and fifth: their narrations are not used as proof. However, their hadeeth are collected and examined, although those at the fifth level are lower than those at the fourth.
- 3- Sixth: their narrations are not used as proof. However, their hadeeth are written, not to be examined, but rather for the purpose of i'tibaar. This results from their apparent lack of dabt.

Grades of Jarh

Gradings of jarh underwent stages of development and finally settled on the following six:

- 1- Indicates carelessness, and is the lightest grade of jarh
Example: layyin al-hadeeth (of little weight); or feehi maqaal (statements have been leveled at him); or fee hadeethihi da'f (his narrations contain weakness); or laysa bi-thaak (not of high standing); or laysa bi-ma'moon (unreliable)
- 2- Clearly indicates that he cannot be used as proof, or other similar remarks
Example: laa yuhtajju bihi (not used as a proof); or da'eef; or lahu manaakeer (has munkar reports); or waahin (feeble); or da'afahu (they declared him weak)
- 3- Clearly indicates his hadeeth are not to be written
Example: laa yuktabu hadeethuhu (his hadeeth are not to be written); or laa tahillu ar-riwaayah 'anhu (not permissible to report from him); or da'eef jiddan (very weak); or waahin bi-marrah (extremely feeble); or tarahoo hadeethahu (they discarded his hadeeth)
- 4- Indicates that he has been accused of lying Example: muttahaman bil-kathib (accused of lying); or muttahaman bil-wad' (accused of fabrication); or yasriq al-hadeeth (steals hadeeth); or saaqit (notorious); or laysa bi-thiqah (not trustworthy)
- 5- Indicates he has been characterized as a liar
Example: kaththaab (established liar); or dajjaal (impostor); or waddaa' (established fabricator); or yakthib (tells lies); or yada' (fabricates)
- 6- Superlative form indicating lying
Example: akthab an-naas (the most dishonest of people); or ilayhi al-muntahaa fil-kathib aw al-wad' (lying or fabrication gets no worse than him); or ruk'n al-kathib (the cornerstone of lying); or ma'din al-kathib (inherent liar)

Rulings on These Gradings:

- 1- First and second: their narration cannot be used as proof. However, their hadeeth can be written for the purpose of i'tibaar only, although those in the second level are lower than those in the first.
- 2- The last four: their narrations cannot be used as proof, nor should they be written, nor are they to be used for the purpose of i'tibaar, because such narrations are not fit to be strengthened nor lend support to others.

The Manner of Samaa', Tahammul, and Dabt of Hadeeth

Samaa' al-Hadeeth

Manner of Samaa' al-Hadeeth (Hearing Hadeeth): this refers to clarifying what is necessary and stipulated for one who wants to hear hadeeth from the shuyookh. It also refers to hearing a narration and receiving it in order to convey it to others later on.

Recommended Age to Begin Samaa' al-Hadeeth:

- 1- From the age of thirty; the scholars of ash-Shaam follow this opinion
- 2- From the age of twenty; the scholars of al-Koofah follow this opinion
- 3- From the age of ten; the scholars of al-Basrah follow this opinion
- 4- The most correct view, adopted in later times, is to begin at a young age as soon as one's samaa' (hearing) is deemed correct, because the ahaadeeth are accurately preserved in books.

Is there a Specific age for the Samaa' of a Child to be Deemed Correct?

- 1- Some of the scholars specified it as being five years of age, and the scholars of hadeeth have implemented this view.
- 2- Others have said that the most correct view is to take the discernment of the child into consideration. If he can comprehend what is said and reply to questions asked, then he is discerning and his samaa' is deemed correct; otherwise his samaa' is not correct.

Tahammul and Dabt of Hadeeth

Tahammul al-Hadeeth*: methods of receiving hadeeth from the shuyookh

Dabt* of Hadeeth: how the student verifies the accuracy of the hadeeth he received in such a way that would qualify him to narrate it to others in a reliable fashion

Are Islaam and Maturity Conditions for Tahammul al-Hadeeth?

Islaam and maturity are not necessary conditions for tahammul of hadeeth, although they are stipulated for adaa' (conveying hadeeth to others). Hence, the narration of a mature Muslim which he received prior to him accepting Islaam, or prior to him being mature, is accepted. However, discernment is necessary for one who has not attained the age of maturity.

Methods of Tahammul of al-Hadeeth:

- 1- Samaa' min lafth ash-shaykh (hearing directly from the words of the shaykh)
- 2- Qiraa'ah 'alaa ash-shaykh (reading to the shaykh); also called 'Arq
- 3- Ijaazah (permission)
- 4- Munaawalah (presentation)
- 5- Kitaabah (written correspondence)
- 6- I'laam (declaration)
- 7- Wasyyah (bequest)
- 8- Wijaadah (finding)

Methods of Tahammul al-Hadeeth

Written Documentation of Hadeeth, and Traveling to Acquire Hadeeth

Ruling on the Written Documentation of Hadeeth

- 1- Undesirable according to some, such as Ibn 'Umar, Ibn Mas'ood, and Zayd ibn Thaabit
- 2- Permissible according to some, such as 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr, Anas, 'Umar ibn 'Abdil-'Azeez, and most of the Sahaabah
- 3- Later on, they all agreed to its permissibility, putting an end to the difference of opinion

Reason for Difference of Opinion Concerning Written Documentation: conflicting ahaadeeth about permission and prohibition

- 1- Hadeeth of prohibition: the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, "Do not write anything from me except the Qur'aan. Anyone who has written something other than the Qur'aan from me must erase it." ^{Muslim}
- 2- Hadeeth of permission: the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, "Write it (my words) for Aboo Shaah," ^{al-Bukhaaree, Muslim} and there are others, such as one permitting 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr to write

Reconciling between the Ahaadeeth of Permission and Prohibition:

- 1- The permission to write was for someone vulnerable to forgetting the hadeeth, while the prohibition was for someone who would not forget, and it was feared he would completely rely upon written documentation if he were to write.
- 2- The prohibition came at a time when it was feared that the hadeeth would be confused with the Qur'aan. Then, when that was no longer feared, there came the permission to write. Based upon this, the prohibition is mansookh (abrogated).

Duties of Someone who Writes Hadeeth:

- 1- Ensuring the precision and accuracy of vowel signs and dots in order to remove confusion; and placing vowel signs on proper nouns, since they cannot be determined by what comes before or after them
- 2- Writing clearly and conforming with the established rules which govern handwriting
- 3- Not devising and using special terminology or symbols which others do not know
- 4- Praising Allaah (ﷻ), using terms such as U ('azza wa jalla; the Most Mighty and Sublime)
- 5- Including salaah and salaam upon the Prophet (ﷺ) each time he is mentioned, and not becoming weary due to repetition. It is undesirable to mention only salaah, or only salaam, or to use symbols such as ص, or صلعم
- 6- Invoking Allaah's pleasure and mercy upon the Sahaabah and scholars

Muqaabalah (Comparison): after completing his writing, he must compare it with the original book of his shaykh, even if he obtained the narrations from him by way of ijaazah.

How Muqaabalah is Performed: the writer recites from his book, while both he and his shaykh have their respective books open before them. It suffices that another thiqah compare with him at any time, whether at the time of reciting or afterwards. It also suffices for him to compare with a copy already compared with the original of the shaykh.

Technical Terms Used when Writing Phrases of Adaa' as well as Others:

- 1- haddathanaa: حدثنا thanaa (نا) or naa (نا)
- 2- akhbaranaa: أخبرنا anaa (أنا) or aranaa (أرانا)
- 3- Tahweel (switching) from one isnaad to another: ح pronounced haa
- 4- If a word is omitted in writing for the purpose of brevity: If "qaala (he said)" or something similar is omitted between individuals of the isnaad, the reader should still pronounce it. For instance, in "haddathanaa 'Abdullaah ibn Yoosuf akhbaranaa Maalik," we would say "qaala akhbaranaa Maalik." Also, if the word "annahu (that he)" is omitted at the end of the isnaad, one should pronounce it. For instance, in "an Abee Hurayrah qaala" we say "annahu qaala." This is done to make the statement conform to the rules of Arabic grammar.

Travelling to Acquire Hadeeth: The scholars exercised unparalleled care and concern in collecting and verifying the hadeeth. As a result, they expended astounding effort and time accomplishing this task. After one of them would collect all the hadeeth of the scholars in his locality, he would travel to any other land, whether near or far, if he heard there was a shaykh there who narrated the hadeeth of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ). He would do so bearing hardships along the way which no one knows of except Allaah (ﷻ), and there are exhilarating accounts of such experiences. In his book, Ar-Rihlah fee Talab al-Hadeeth, al-Khaṭṭeab al-Baghdadee collected some of these accounts from the Sahaabah, Taabi'een, and those after them concerning the acquisition of the noble hadeeth.

Riwaayah of Hadeeth

What is Meant: the manner in which a hadeeth is narrated, the etiquette to be observed, and other related matters

Is it permissible for a narrator to narrate from his book if he has not memorized what it contains?

- 1- Stringent View: consideration is not given except to what has been narrated from memory; this view has been reported from Maalik, Aboo Haneefah, and Aboo Bakr as-Saydalaanee
- 2- Lenient View: some individuals narrated from copies which were not compared with their originals, and among them is Ibn Lahee‘ah
- 3- Moderate View: if tahammul (receiving) and muqaabalah (comparison) of the narrations are performed based on the criteria that have preceded, it is permissible for him to narrate from his book, even if his book is not at hand, since it is highly unlikely that he would make any alterations or substitutions – especially if he typically recognizes such alterations. This is the view of the majority of scholars.

Ruling on the narration of a blind person who did not memorize what he heard: if he sought help from a thiqah in writing the narrations which he heard, verifying their accuracy, and maintaining his book; and if he is careful when the narrations are read to him, such that he is largely convinced there are no alterations, his narration is acceptable according to the majority of scholars, and he is considered just as an illiterate person who is able to see, but does not memorize.

Ruling on narrating hadeeth by meaning, and conditions for doing so:

- 1- Some scholars of hadeeth, fiqh, and usool prohibited it; among them were Ibn Seereen and Aboo Bakr ar-Raazee
- 2- Most scholars of hadeeth, fiqh and usool permitted it, including the four Imaams, provided the narrator precisely conveys the entire meaning and fulfills conditions including:
 - a) He knows the wordings and what is intended by them
 - b) He is fully aware of what could alter the meaning

This is excludes written compilations, as it is not permissible to narrate any part of them by meaning, or to alter the wordings which are found in them, even if they convey the same meaning. This is because the permissibility of narrating by meaning is due to necessity only.

Reasons for making lahn (mistakes of grammar or pronunciation) in hadeeth, which a student must avoid:

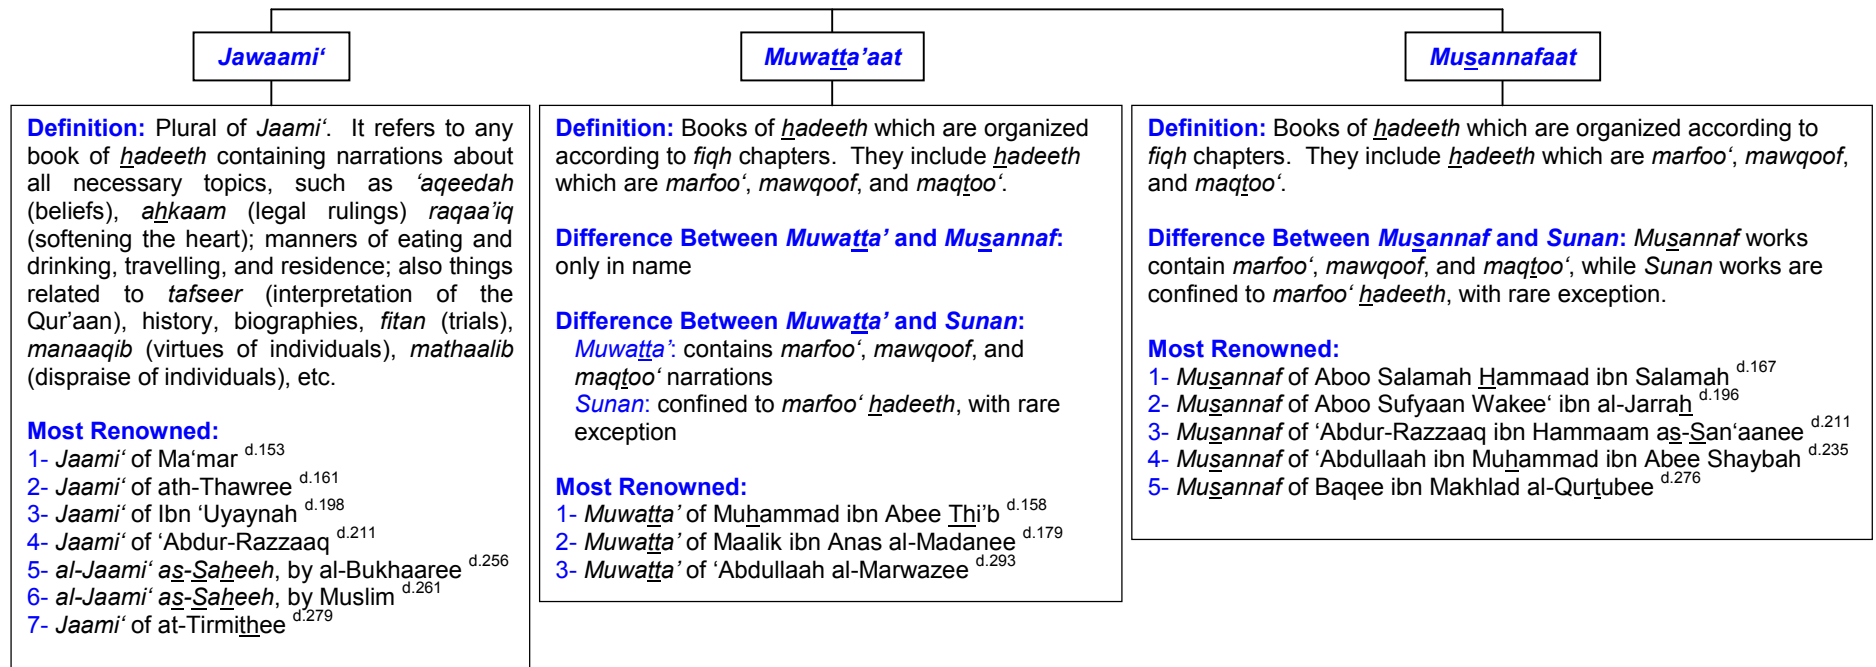

- 1- Not learning nahw (grammar) and Arabic language
- 2- Relying only on books and written materials, and not learning from shuyookh

Methods of Tasneef (Compiling Hadeeth)

The methods of compiling hadeeth are numerous, and they do not follow one specific form due to a number of factors. The following are the most prominent of these methods, organized according to chronological development.

- 1- Jawaami': among the earliest of them was the Jaami' of Ma'mar ^{d.153}
- 2- Muwatta'aat: among the earliest was the Muwatta' of Muhammad ibn Abee Thi'b ^{d.158}
- 3- Musannafaat: among the earliest was the Musannaf of Hammad ibn Salamah al-Basree ^{d.167}
- 4- Ajzaa': among the earliest was Juz' maa Rawaahu Aboo Haneefah 'an as-Sahaabah, by Aboo Ma'shar ^{d.178}
- 5- Masaaneed: among the earliest was the Musnad of Abee Dawood at-Tayaalisee ^{d.204}
- 6- Sunan: among the earliest was the Sunan of Muhammad ibn Idrees ash-Shaaf'iee ^{d.204}
- 7- Sihaah: among the earliest was Saheeh al-Bukhaaree ^{d.256}
- 8- Ma'aajim: among the earliest was Mu'jam as-Sahaabah, by Ahmad ibn 'Alee al-Mawsilee ^{d.307}

- 10- Atraaf: among the earliest was Atraaf as-Saheehayn, by Ibraaheem ad-Dimashqee ^{d.401}

- 12- Majaamee': among the earliest was al-Jam' Bayna as-Saheehayn, by Muhammad al-Humaydee ^{d.488}

Books of Atraaf

Definition: A book of atraaf is a collection of hadeeth in which the compiler limits himself to mentioning the araf (small portion, usually the beginning) of the hadeeth which serves as an indication to the remainder of it. Then, the compiler lists the asaaneed through which that matn is transmitted. This may be done in a comprehensive manner, or only relative to specific books. Some compilers list the asaaneed for a given matn in their entirety, while others only mention the shaykh of the original author.

Organization:

- 1- Most are arranged to masaaneed of names of the Sahaabah in alphabetical order
- 2- In rare cases, they are arranged alphabetically according to the beginning of the matn, as in:
 - a) Atraaf al-Gharaa'ib wal-Afraad, by ad-Daaraqutnee, arranged by Muḥammad ibn Ṭaahir al-Maqdisee ^{d.507}
 - b) *Al-Kashshaaf fee Ma'rifah al-Atraaf*¹, by Muḥammad ibn 'Alee al-Husaynee ^{d.765}

Purposes: The books of atraaf are helpful in finding:

- 1- Whether a given hadeeth is ghareeb, 'azeez, or mashhoor, because its various asaaneed are all collected in one place
- 2- Which author of the original books collected a hadeeth, and in which chapter
- 3- the number of hadeeth narrated by each Sahaabee in the books covered by works of atraaf

Note:

- 1- Books on atraaf do not provide the complete matn of the hadeeth
- 2- They do not give the exact same wording of the hadeeth, but instead provide the meaning. Someone who wishes to find the hadeeth with its exact wording must consult the original sources referred to in the book of atraaf which act as a guide to the location of the hadeeth. This is contrary to musnad works which provide the exact wording.

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

- 1- Atraaf as-Sahheehayn, by Aboo Mas'ood Ibraaheem ibn Muḥammad ad-Dimashqee ^{d.401}
- 2- Atraaf as-Sahheehayn, by Aboo Muḥammad Khalaf ibn Muḥammad al-Waasitee ^{d.401}
- 3- *Al-Ishraaf 'alaa Ma'rifah al-Atraaf*², by Ibn 'Asaakir Abul-Qaasim 'Alee ibn al-Ḥasan ^{d.571}
- 4- *Tuhfah al-Ashraaf bi-Ma'rifah al-Atraaf*¹, by Abul-Hajjaaj Yusuf 'Abdur-Rahmaan al-Mizzee ^{d.742}
- 5- *Atraaf al-Masaaneed al-'Asharah*³, by Abul-'Abbaas Ahmad ibn Muḥammad al-Booseeree ^{d.840}
- 6- *Ithaaf al-Maharah bi-Atraaf al-'Asharah*⁴, by Ahmad ibn 'Alee ibn Hajar al-'Asqalaanee ^{d.852}
- 7- *Thakhaa'ir al-Mawaareeth fid-Dalaalah 'alaa Mawaadij' al-Hadeeth*⁵, by 'Abdul-Ghaneer an-Naabulsee ^{d.1143}

Mustadrakaat 'alaa al-Jawaami'

Definition: Plural of mustadrak, which is a book where the author collects ahaadeeth by which he supplements an existing book based on its criteria (i.e. of the original author), though its original author did not include them.

Example:

Al-Mustadrak 'alaa as-Sahheehayn, in 4 volumes, by al-Ḥaakim ^{d.405}

The Ahaadeeth of Mustadrak al-Ḥaakim are of Three Types:

- 1- Sahheeh according to the criteria of al-Bukhaaree and Muslim, or one of them, though neither of them collected it in their books.
- 2- Sahheeh according to al-Ḥaakim himself, though not necessarily fulfilling the criteria of al-Bukhaaree or Muslim. Al-Ḥaakim refers to these as sahheehah al-isnaad.
- 3- Ahaadeeth which he did not consider to be sahheeh, but he pointed them out.

Note: Al-Ḥaakim was lenient in grading narrations as being sahheeh. Ath-Thahabee examined the narrations, and he approved some of what al-Ḥaakim graded sahheeh, differed with him at times, and remained silent on things which required further research.

Jum'ah, Usool at-Takhreej, 6

1) Refers to the atraaf of the Six Books. 2) Refers to the atraaf of the four sunan works. 3) Refers to the musnad works of: Aboo Daawood at-Tayaalisee, Aboo Bakr al-Humaydee, Musaddad ibn Musarhad, Muḥammad ibn Yahyaa al-'Adanee, Ishaq ibn Raahawayh, Aboo Bakr ibn Abee Shaybah, Ahmad ibn Manee', 'Abd ibn Humayd, al-Haarith ibn Muḥammad ibn Abee Usaamah, and Aboo Ya'laa al-Mawjilee. 4) Refers to al-Muwatta', Musnad ash-Shaafi'ee, Musnad Ahmad, Musnad ad-Daarimee, Sahheeh ibn Khuzaymah, Muntaqaa ibn al-Jaarood, Sahheeh ibn Hibban, Mustadrak al-Ḥaakim, Mustakhraj Abee 'Awaanah, Sharh Ma'aanee al-Aathaar by at-Tahaawee, and Sunan ad-Daaraqutnee. The reason eleven books are mentioned instead of ten is because only a quarter of Sahheeh ibn Khuzaymah was available. See Lahth al-Alhaath Thayl Tathkirat al-Huffaath, p. 333. 5) Refers to the Six Books and Muwatta' Maalik

Methods of Tasneef

Majaamee'

 - al-Mu'jam al-Awsat, by at-Tabaraanee ^{d.360}
 - al-Mu'jam as-Sagheer, by at-Tabaraanee ^{d.360}

Zawaa'id

Definition: Works in which the compiler collects ahadeeth from certain books which are additional to those found in other books.

Examples:

- 1- Misbaah az-Zujaajah fee Zawaa'id Ibn Maajah, by Ahmad ibn Muhammad al-Booseeree ^{d.840}, which contains zawaa'id of Sunan Ibn Maajah (i.e. the additional narrations it has) not found in the five other books ⁴.
- 2- Fawaa'id al-Muntaqee li-Zawaa'id al-Bayhaqee, by al-Booseeree ^{d.840}, which contains the zawaa'id of Sunan al-Bayhaqee al-Kubraa not found in the Six Books ¹.
- 3- Ithaaf as-Saadah al-Maharah al-Khiyarah bi-Zawaa'id al-'Asharah, by al-Booseeree, which contains the zawaa'id of al-'Asharah (the ten musnad works) not found in the Six Books ¹. The ten musnad works are:
 - Musnad Abee Daawood at-Tayaalisee ^{d.204}

 - Musnad Musaddad ibn Musarhad ^{d.228}

Ghareeb – Literally: obscure and difficult to understand

Technically: obscure wordings that occur in the matn of a hadeeth

An-Nihaayah fee Ghareeb al-Hadeeth wal-Athar, by Ibn al-Atheer

The book consists of five volumes: Ibn al-Atheer acquired much knowledge in the area of explaining ghareeb al-hadeeth. Thus, he imparted that and augmented it with detailed independent research, so much so that his book is considered the utmost authority in this discipline. Only a few ahaadeeth escaped him, and as-Suyootee discussed them in ad-Durr an-Natheer as well as at-Tathyeel wat-Tathneeb 'alaa Nihaayah al-Ghareeb.

Methodology Followed by the Author: he did not limit himself to just linguistic aspects when explaining the ghareeb terms in the hadeeth of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) and the aathaar of the Sahaabah and Taabi'een. He discussed topics of fiqh, raised issues concerning ṣarf, and attempted to reconcile ahaadeeth that appeared to be conflicting. After Ibn al-Atheer, almost no one wrote on the topic except Ibn al-Haajib^{d.646} and scholarly endeavors concentrated on making appendices and abridgements of an-Nihaayah. 'Imaad ad-Deen Abul-Fidaa' Ismaa'eel ibn Muhammad al-Ba'lee al-Hanbalee al-Haafith^{d.785} composed a poetic adaptation of an-Nihaayah in his book al-Kifaayah fee Nathm an-Nihaayah. Among the most renowned abridgements and appendices to an-Nihaayah are:

- 1- An appendix by Safee ad-Deen Mahmood ibn Abee Bakr al-Armawee^{d.723}
- 2- An abridgement by as-Suyootee entitled Ad-Durr an-Natheer Talkhees Nihaayah ibn al-Atheer
- 3- At-Tathyeel wat-Tathneeb 'alaa Nihaayah al-Ghareeb, also by as-Suyootee^{d.911}
- 4- An abridgement by 'Eesaa ibn Muḥammad as-Safawee^{d.953}
- 5- An abridgement by 'Alee ibn Husaam ad-Deen al-Hindee^{d.975}

Manners of the Muḥaddith and Student of Hadeeth

Manners of the Muḥaddith, When to Start Narrating, and Most Renowned Works

Manners of the Muḥaddith:

- 1- Sincerity of intention and purifying the heart from worldly gains, such as seeking authority and fame
- 2- Making his greatest priority spreading ah̄adeeth and conveying them from the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ), hoping for the reward from Allaah

- 2- Sitting in a composed, dignified manner, out of respect for the h̄adeeth of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ)
- 3- Giving attention to all those present, and not devoting his attention to some while excluding others

- 5- Avoiding narration of h̄adeeth which those present cannot comprehend or grasp
- 6- Concluding the dictation with stories and anecdotes to refresh the heart and eliminate boredom

Age at Which the Muḥaddith Should Begin Narrating:

- 1- Some say fifty, others say forty, and there are other opinions as well
- 2- The correct opinion is that he narrates when he becomes qualified and there is a need for his knowledge, whatever age he may be

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

Manners of the Student of Hadeeth

Manners Shared With the Muḥaddith:

- 1- Rectifying the intention and making it sincerely for Allaah
- 2- Not making worldly gains the objective of his learning, in line with the narration from Aboo Hurayrah who said, the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, "Whoever acquires knowledge by which face of Allaah is sought, yet he acquires it only for worldly gains, he will not find the scent of Jannah on the Day of Judgment." ^{Aboo Daawood, Ibn Maajah}
- 3- Implementing the ah̄adeeth which he hears

Manners Unique to the Student

- 1- Imploring Allaah for success, accuracy, ease, and assistance in correctly preserving and understanding the h̄adeeth
- 2- Fully dedicating himself to it and devoting his effort to its attainment
- 3- Beginning by hearing from the prominent shuyookh of his region in terms of isnaad, knowledge, and religious commitment
- 4- Revering his shaykh, the one he hears from, respecting him, striving to please him, and patiently bearing any harshness should that occur
- 5- Informing his peers of beneficial points which he comes across and not withholding them, since the objective of seeking knowledge is to spread it
- 6- Not allowing modesty or pride to impede him from seeking knowledge, even if it be from someone lower than him in age or status
- 7- Not confining himself to merely hearing and writing the h̄adeeth without understanding them, lest he tire himself out without any end result
- 8- Striving to hear and understand the following books in this order:
 - the Saheehayn
 - Sunan Abee Daawood ^{d.275}, at-Tirmitheeh ^{d.279}, and an-Nasaa'ee ^{d.303}
 - as-Sunan al-Kubraa, by Bayhaqee ^{d.458}

Then looking into the following books whenever the need arises:

- Masaaneed, such as the Musnad of Aḥmad ^{d.241}
- Muwatta'aat, such as the Muwatta'a' of Maalik ^{d.179}
- Among books of 'Ilal: 'Ilal of ad-Daaraqutnee ^{d.385}
- For names of narrators: at-Taareekh al-Kabeer, by al-Bukhaaree, and al-Jarḥ wat-Ta'deel, by Ibn Abee Haatim ^{d.327}
- For verifying names: the book of Ibn Maakoolaa
- For ghareeb al-h̄adeeth: an-Nihaayah, by Ibn al-Atheer ^{d.606}

Musalsal

Literally: connected to something else; such as an iron silsilah (chain) Technically: succession of the narrators in its isnaad having a specific circumstance or feature. This sometimes applies to the narrators, and sometimes to the narration itself.

Types of Musalsal:

1- Musalsal by Circumstances of the Narrators

- a) Verbal Circumstance: for instance the hadeeth of Mu‘aath ibn Jabal that the Prophet (ﷺ) said to him, “O Mu‘aath! I indeed love you. Thus, say at the end of every prayer, ‘O Allaah, assist me in remembering You, being grateful to You, and perfecting Your worship.’” It is musalsal due to every one of its narrators saying, “And I love you. Thus, say...”
- b) Physical Circumstance: such as the hadeeth of Aboo Hurayrah where he said, “Abul-Qaasim (رضي الله عنه) interlaced his hand with mine and said, ‘Allaah created the Earth on a Saturday.’”^{al-Haakim} It is musalsal due to every one of its narrators interlacing his hand with the hand of the person who narrated from him.
- c) Verbal and Physical Circumstances Together: such as the hadeeth of Anas where he said the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) said, ‘The servant will not find the sweetness of eemaan until he has eemaan in al-Qadar – its good and evil; its sweet and the bitter.’ He (ﷺ) grasped his beard and said, ‘I have eemaan in al-Qadar – its good and evil; its sweet and bitter.’” It is musalsal due to every one of its narrators grasping his beard and saying, “I have eemaan in al-Qadar; its good and evil, its sweet and bitter.”

2- Musalsal by Features of the Narrators

- a) Verbal Feature: such as the musalsal hadeeth about recitation of Soorah as-Saff. It is musalsal due to every one of its narrators saying, “(Person A) recited it like this.”
- b) Physical Feature: such as narrators all having the same name, like the musalsal by the Muhammadeen; or having the same area of expertise, such as the musalsal of fuqahaa (scholars of fiqh), or the huffaath; or having ascription to same place, such as all being from Dimashq (Damascus), or all from Misr (Egypt).

3- Musalsal by Features of the Narration: its features are related to the phrases of adaa (conveying), time, or location, as follows:

- a) Musalsal by Phrase of Adaa: such as a hadeeth that is musalsal by every one of its narrators saying “sami‘tu” or “akhbaranaa”
- b) Musalsal based on Time of the Narration: such as a hadeeth that is musalsal by being narrated on the day of ‘Eed’
- c) Musalsal based on Location of the Narration: such as a hadeeth about supplication being answered, which is musalsal by being narrated at the multazam (spot beneath the door of the ka‘bah)

One of its Purposes: indicates added dabt on the part of the narrators

Must the entire isnaad be musalsal? It is not necessary, since that quality may stop in the middle or at the end. In that case, it is said to be musalsal up to a certain person.

There is no connection between being musalsal and being sahheeh: It is rare to find a musalsal narration free of faults. These can either be in the very quality itself which makes it musalsal, or weakness in the narration even if its basis is sahheeh from a route which is not musalsal.

The best type of musalsal: that which indicates it is connected by way of direct hearing without any occurrence of tadlees.

Additional Note: As-Suyootee stated that Shaykh al-Islam (i.e. Ibn Taymiyyah) said one of the best musalsal narrations that exists is the one concerning recitation of Soorah as-Saff. As-Suyootee commented saying that the musalsal narrations by way of huffaath and fuqahaa are likewise. In fact, it is mentioned in Sharh an-Nukhbah that the musalsal by way of huffaath conveys knowledge which is certain.

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

- 1- al-Musalsalaat al-Kubraa, by as-Suyootee^{d. 911}, which includes 85 ahaadeeth
- 2- al-Manaahil as-Silsilah fil-Ahaadeeth al-Musalsalah, by Muhammad ‘Abdul-Baaqee al-Ayyoobe, which includes 212 ahaadeeth

Narration of Akaabir from Aṣaaghir

Literally: akaabir is plural of akbar (elder) and aṣaaghir is plural of aṣghar (younger)

Technically: an individual narrating from someone who is less than him in age and ṭabaqah (level); or less in knowledge and memorization

What is Meant: A narrator reporting from someone younger than him or at a lower ṭabaqah, an example of which is the Saḥābah narrating from the Taabi'een. Also included is narrating from someone with less knowledge and memorization, such as a scholar who is a ḥaafith narrating from a shaykh, even if that shaykh is elder in age. It must also be pointed out that someone merely being older in age or at a senior in ṭabaqah, but without being equal in knowledge to the person he narrates from, is not enough to be classified as narration of akaabir from aṣaaghir.

Types and Examples:

- 1- The narrator is older in age and more senior in ṭabaqah than the person whom he narrates from, as well as possessing knowledge and memorization
- 2- The narrator is of greater prestige, but younger than the person from whom he narrates; such as a scholar who is a ḥaafith narrating from a prominent shaykh who is not a ḥaafith
Example: narration of Maalik from 'Abdullaah ibn Deenaar
- 3- The narrator is greater in age and prestige than the person whom he narrates from; in other words, older and more knowledgeable than him.
Example: narration of al-Barqaanee from al-Khaṭeeb

Some Narrations of Akaabir from Aṣaaghir:

- 1- Narration of Saḥābah from Taabi'een: such as the 'Abaadilah and others narrating from Ka'b al-Aḥbaar
- 2- Narration of a Taabi'ee from someone of the succeeding generation: such as Yahyaa ibn Sa'eed al-Ansaaree narrating from Maalik

Purposes of Knowing it:

- 1- Avoiding erroneously thinking that the person narrated from is older and more prestigious than the narrator, despite this being the case most of the time
- 2- Avoiding the presumption that there is a reversal in the sanad, since aṣaaghir usually narrate from akaabir

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

- Maa Rawahu al-Kibaar 'an as-Sighaar wal-Aabaa' 'anil-Abnaa', by Ishaaq ibn Ibraaheem al-Warraaq^{d.403}

Narrations of Fathers from Sons, and Narrations of Sons from Fathers

Narrations of Fathers from Sons: at some point in the sanad, a father narrates the hadeeth from his son

Narrations of Sons from Fathers: at some point in the sanad, a son narrates the hadeeth from his father; or narrates from his father, from his grandfather

Narrations of Fathers from Sons

Example: hadeeth narrated by al-‘Abbaas ibn ‘Abdil-Muttalib, from his son, al-Fadl, that the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) combined two prayers while at Muzdalifah.

Purpose of Knowing it: Avoiding the presumption that there is a reversal or mistake in the sanad, since the son usually narrates from his father. Furthermore, this indicates the humility of the scholars, since they would take knowledge from others who were less than them in age and prestige, as in the narration of akaabir from asaaghir.

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

- Riwaayah al-Aabaa’ ‘anil-Abnaa, by al-Khaṭṭeab al-Baghdaadee ^{d.463}

Narrations of Sons from Fathers

Most Significant Component: where neither father nor grandfather are named, because investigation must be done in order to determine the name

Types:

1- Someone narrating only from his father, but not from his grandfather, and this occurs often.

Example: narration of Abul-‘Usharaa’ from his father

Example: narration of ‘Amr ibn Shu‘ayb, from his father, from his grandfather

Purposes of Knowing it:

1- Investigating in order to determine the name of the father, or grandfather, in the case where his name is not clearly stated

2- Understanding what is meant by the grandfather – whether it is the grandfather of the son, or the grandfather of the father

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

2- Juz’ man Rawaa’ ‘an Abeehi ‘an Jaddihi, by Ibn Abee Khaythamah

Mudabbaj, the Narration of Aqraan, and as-Saabiq wal-Laahiq

Mudabbaj – Literally: beautified

Aqraan – Literally: plural of qareen, meaning a contemporary

Saabiq – Literally: coming earlier; Laahiq: coming later

Technically: two contemporaries each of whom narrates from the other

Technically: one of two contemporaries narrates from the other

Technically: two people, whose times of death were far apart, share in narrating from one shaykh

'Aalee and Naazil Isnaad

'Aalee – Literally: elevated; from the word 'uluww (elevation)

Technically: has fewer narrators relative to another sanad of a given hadeeth

Naazil – Literally: descended; from the word nuzool (descent)

Technically: has more narrators relative to another sanad of a given hadeeth

Categories of 'Uluww and its Opposite, Nuzool:

1- Near the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) by way of an unblemished saheeh isnaad: this is absolute 'uluww, and it is the best category.

2- Near one of the leading scholars of hadeeth: even if, after him, the number of narrators increases towards the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ). For example, being near to al-A'mash, Ibn Jurayj, Maalik, or others, while also being saheeh and having an unblemished isnaad.

3- Being near with respect to the narration of a dependable book, such as the six books: this is where many of the later scholars have devoted much attention, in terms of muwaafaqah, badal, musawaah and musaafahah.

a) Muwaafaqah (coinciding): coinciding with the shaykh of one of the compilers, but using a route different from his and having less narrators Example: in Sharh an-Nukhbah, Ibn Hajar stated, "al-Bukhaaree reported a hadeeth from Qutaybah, from Maalik. If we were to narrate it from his route, there would be eight people between us and Qutaybah. However, if we were to narrate that very same hadeeth using the route of Abul-'Abbaas as-Siraaj from Qutaybah, for instance, there would only be seven people between us and Qutaybah. In that way, we would have achieved muwaafaqah with al-Bukhaaree, by coinciding with his shaykh and also having achieved 'uluww al-isnaad.

b) Badal (substitution): coinciding with the shaykh of one of the compilers, but using a route different from his and having less narrators Example: Ibn Hajar said, "Such as if we were to use the very same isnaad (i.e. as above), but from another route going to up to al-Qa'nabee, from Maalik. In this case, al-Qa'nabee would be badal for Qutaybah.

c) Musawaah (equality): using an isnaad containing a number of people equal to the number in the isnaad of one of the compilers

Example: Ibn Hajar said, "Such as if an-Nasaa'ee, for instance, reported a hadeeth where there were eleven individuals between him and the Prophet (ﷺ); and then we were to [use a different route of narration containing a number] equal to that of an-Nasaa'ee."

d) Musaafahah (meeting): using an isnaad containing a number of people equal to the number in the isnaad of a student of one of the compilers

4- 'Uluww resulting from the narrator passing away at an earlier date: for instance, an-Nawawee said, "Whatever I narrate through three individuals, from al-Bayhaqee, from al-Haakim possesses more 'uluww than what I narrate through three individuals from Aboo Bakr ibn Khalaf, from al-Haakim, due to the earlier death of al-Bayhaqee."

5- 'Uluww resulting from earlier hearing: this refers to hearing from a shaykh at an earlier time. Hence, the isnaad of someone who heard from him earlier would possess more 'uluww than someone else who heard from him later on.

Example: two individuals hear from a shaykh. One of them heard sixty years ago, while the other heard forty years ago, and the number leading to each of them is the same. In this case, the former possesses more 'uluww than the latter. This is especially vital in the case where the shaykh began to confuse narrations or became senile.

Is 'Uluww better than Nuzool?

1- The correct view, which is held by the majority, is that 'uluww is better since it reduces the likelihood of any mistake occurring in the hadeeth

2- Nuzool could be better if there is a certain distinguishing feature that stands out in the isnaad

Knowing the Sahaabah

Sahaabah – Literally: indicates companionship Technically: met the Prophet (ﷺ), while believing in him, and died as a Muslim, even if he apostated at some point

Importance, Method, 'Adalah, Narrations, Verdicts, and Best of Them

Its Importance and Purpose: telling the muttasil apart from the mursal

How to Know a Sahaabee Fits the Definition:

- 1- Mutawaatir report: like Aboo Bakr, 'Umar, and the Ten given tidings of Jannah (y)
- 2- Established repute: like Dimaam ibn Tha'labah, and 'Ukkaashah ibn Mihsan (y)
- 3- Another Sahaabee saying so
- 4- Thiqaat among the Taabi'een saying so
- 5- He himself saying so: provided he was 'adl and his claim was plausible

'Adalah of the Sahaabah: they are all 'udool (i.e. each of them has 'adl), regardless of whether or not they had contact with any civil strife that took place

What Their 'Adalah Implies: avoiding intentional lying when narrating, or being involved anything that would jeopardize the acceptance of their narrations. Hence, their reports are accepted without any investigation into their 'adalah. Any contact one them may have had with civil strife is considered as a product of independent judgment for which they would be rewarded. This is most in line with holding them in high esteem, since they were the conveyors of the religion, and were the best generation (y).

Most Prolific Narrators:

- 1- Aboo Hurayrah: narrated 5374 hadeeth, and over 300 people narrated from him
- 2- Ibn 'Umar: narrated 2630 hadeeth
- 3- Anas ibn Maalik: narrated 2286 hadeeth
- 4- 'Aa'ishah, the Mother of Believers: narrated 2210 hadeeth
- 5- Ibn 'Abbaas: narrated 1660 hadeeth
- 6- Jaabir ibn 'Abdillaah: narrated 1540 hadeeth

Most to Issue Legal Verdicts:

Ibn 'Abbaas, and then the six senior scholars among them: 'Umar, 'Alee, Ubayy ibn Ka'b, Zayd ibn Thaabit, Abud-Dardaa', and Ibn Mas'ood (y).

The Best of Them:

Aboo Bakr, then 'Umar, by the consensus of Ahlus-Sunnah, then 'Uthmaan, then 'Alee, then the remainder of the Ten, then those who attended the battle of Badr, then those who attended the battle of Uhud, then those who participated in the Pledge of ar-Ridwaan (y).

Knowing the Taabi'een and Siblings

Taabi'een – Literally: plural of taabi'; someone who walks behind

Technically: whoever met a Sahaabee, while being Muslim, and died upon Islaam

Knowing the Taabi'een

One of its Purposes: telling the mursal apart from muttasil

Tabaqat of the Taabi'een:

- 1- Muslim classified them into three
- 2- Ibn Sa'd classified them into four
- 3- al-Haakim classified them into fifteen, the first being those who met the Ten among the Sahaabah

Mukhadram: the person who lived during the period of Jaahiliyyah (pre-Islamic ignorance), as well as the time of the Prophet (ﷺ), accepted Islaam, but did not meet the Prophet (ﷺ). According to the correct view, the mukhadram is considered one of the Taabi'een and there are about twenty such individuals.

Al-Fuqahaa' as-Sab'ah (The Seven Fuqahaa')

- 1- 'Urwah ibn az-Zubayr^{d.93}
- 2- Sa'eed ibn al-Musayyib^{d.94}
- 3- Aboo Bakr ibn 'Abdir-Rahmaan ibn al-Haarith ibn Hishaam^{d.94}

Knowing Siblings

One of its Purposes: Avoiding the presumption that two people whose fathers share the same name are siblings when, in fact, they are not. For instance, 'Abdullaah ibn Deenaar and 'Amr ibn Deenaar; someone may mistakenly think that the two of them are brothers, when in reality they are not.

Examples of Siblings:

Two: among the Sahaabah, 'Umar and Zayd, both sons of al-Khattaab

Three: among the Sahaabah, 'Alee, Ja'far, and 'Aqeel, the sons of Aboo Taalib

Four: among Atbaa' at-Taabi'een, Suhayl, 'Abdullaah, Muhammad, and Saalih, the sons of Aboo Saalih

Five: among Atbaa' at-Taabi'een, Sufyaan, Aadam, 'Imraan, Muhammad, and Ibraaheem, the sons of 'Uyaynah

Six: among the Taabi'een, Muhammad, Anas, Yahyaa, Ma'bad, Hafsah, and Kareemah, the children of Seereen

Seven: among the Sahaabah, an-Nu'maan, Ma'qil, 'Aqeel, Suwayd, Sinaan, 'Abdur-Rahmaan, and 'Abdullaah, the sons of Muqarrin

Al-Muttafiq wal-Muftariq, and Al-Mu'talif wal-Mukhtalif

Muttafiq – Literally: agreeing; the opposite of Muftariq (disagreeing)

– Technically: names of narrators are identical, as well as the names of their fathers and possibly previous generations, in both writing and pronunciation, while they are actually different people. Also included are instances where their names and kunyah, or names and nasab (ascription), are the same.

Mu'talif – Literally: meeting; the opposite of Mukhtalif (differing)

– Technically: the name, laqab, kunyah, or nasab of narrators are written the same way, yet pronounced differently

Al-Muttafiq wal-Muftariq

Examples:

- 1- al-Khaleel ibn Ahmad: six individuals shared this name, the first of whom is the teacher of Seebawayh
- 2- Ahmad ibn Ja'far ibn Hamdaan: four individuals in one era
- 3- 'Umar ibn al-Khattaab: six individuals

Importance and Purpose of Knowing it:

- 1- Not mistaking those who share the same name to be one person while they are actually a group of people. This is the opposite of muhmal where one person may be presumed to be two distinct people.
- 2- Distinguishing between those who share the same name. One of them may be thiqah while another may be da'eef, rendering the saheeh as da'eef or vice versa.

When must attention be drawn to it? When two or more narrators share the same name, are contemporaries, and also share some of the same shuyookh or individuals who narrate from them. However, if they are in different time periods, their identical names do not pose a problem.

- 2- Al-Ansaab al-Muttafiqah, by al-Haafith Muhammad ibn Taahir^{d.507}

Al-Mu'talif wal-Mukhtalif

Examples:

- 1- Salaam and Sallaam
- 2- Miswar and Musawwar
- 3- al-Bazzaaz and al-Bazzaar
- 4- ath-Thawree and at-Tawwazee

Is there a Rule for Differentiation?

- 1- In most cases there is no general rule due to its prevalence. Rather, each name is memorized as it is.
- 2- Some are governed by a general rule, and they fall into two categories:
 - a) A rule governing specific book(s): such as any occurrence of يسار in the Saheehayn and Muwatta' is "Yasaar", except in the case of Muhammad ibn Bashshaar.
 - b) A general rule not limited to specific book(s): such as any occurrence of سلام is "Sallaam," for all except five people, and then those five are mentioned.

Purpose of Knowing it: avoiding mistakes

Mutashaabih and Muhmal

Mutashaabih – Literally: confused; from tashaabuh (similarity)

–Technically: the names of narrators coincide in pronunciation and writing, but the names of their fathers are different in pronunciation but not writing; or vice versa

Muhmal – Literally: neglected; from ihmaal (neglect)

–Technically: when a narrator reports from two people whose own names coincide, or both their names and fathers' names coincide, and they cannot be distinguished from each other

Mutashaabih

Examples:

- 1- Muḥammad ibn ‘Aqeel and Muḥammad ibn ‘Uqayl, where the narrators' names coincide, while their fathers' names are different.
- 2- Shurayḥ ibn an-Nu‘maan and Surayj ibn an-Nu‘maan, where the narrators' names are different, while their fathers' names coincide.

Purpose of Knowing it: accurately determining the names of the narrators, avoiding confusion in their pronunciation, and avoiding taṣ-ḥeef and errors.

Other Types of Mutashaabih:

- 1- Coinciding of own name and father's name, except one or two letters, such as Muḥammad ibn Ḥunayn and Muḥammad ibn Jubayr
- 2- Coinciding of own name and father's name in writing and pronunciation, but in different order
 - a) Either two entire names: al-Aswad ibn Yazeed and Yazeed ibn al-Aswad
 - b) Or just some letters: Ayyoob ibn Sayyaar and Ayyoob ibn Yasaar

Muhmal

When is Ihmaal Harmful?

Ihmaal is harmful if one of the narrators is thiqah and the other is ḍa'eef. This is because we cannot identify which of them was narrated from in that case; and if it were the ḍa'eef narrator, then the ḥadeeth would be ḍa'eef. However, if both narrators are thiqah, then ihmaal does not affect the authenticity of the ḥadeeth, because it remains ṣaḥeeḥ if narrated from either of them.

Examples:

- 1- If they are both thiqah: what occurred with al-Bukhaaree in his narration from Aḥmad, from Ibn Wahb. It could be either Aḥmad ibn Ṣaaliḥ or Aḥmad ibn ‘Eesaa, both of whom are thiqah.
- 2- If one is thiqah and the other is ḍa'eef: two named Sulaymaan ibn Daawood. If it is al-Khawlaanee, he is thiqah, but if it is al-Yamaanee, he is ḍa'eef.

Difference between Muhmal and Mubham: the name of the muhmal is mentioned but the person to whom the name refers remains ambiguous; while the name of the mubham is not mentioned at all.

Knowing Mubhamaat and Wuḥḍaan

Mubhamaat – Literally: plural of mubham, meaning ambiguous

– Technically: someone whose name is left ambiguous in the matn or isnaad, whether the narrator or someone involved in the narration

Wuḥḍaan – Literally: plural of waahid (one)

– Technically: narrators from whom only one person has narrated

Knowing Mubhamaat

Some of its Purposes:

- 1- If ambiguity is in the sanad: knowing if the narrator is thiqah or not, in order to grade the authenticity of the hadeeth.
- 2- If ambiguity is in the matn: identifying the person or questioner involved. If the hadeeth contains a good quality of his, then his virtue becomes known. However, if it contains the contrary, none of the other virtuous Sahaabah are to be viewed in a negative light.

Identifying the Mubham:

- 1- Being named in other narrations
- 2- Biographers having identified many of them

Categories of Mubham According to Degree of Ambiguity are Four:

- 1- A Man or Woman: such as the hadeeth of Ibn ‘Abbaas that a man said, “O Messenger of Allaah! Is Hajj to be performed each year?” The man is al-Aqra’ ibn Haabis.
- 2- Son or daughter; and the same applies to a brother, sister, nephew, and niece: such as the hadeeth of Umm ‘Atiyyah regarding the washing the body of the daughter of the Prophet (ﷺ) body with water and sidr. The daughter is Zaynab (z).
- 3- Uncle or aunt, paternal and maternal, as well as cousins: such as the hadeeth of Raafi’ ibn Khadeej which he has narrated from his uncle regarding the prohibition of mukhaabarah (sharecropping). His uncle’s name is Thuhayr ibn Raafi’. Also, the hadeeth of the aunt of Jaabir, who wept over the death of his father in Uḥud. His aunt’s name is Faaṭimah bint ‘Amr.
- 4- Husband or wife: such as the hadeeth narrated in the Saheehayn regarding the death of the husband of Subay’ah. Her husband’s name is Sa’d ibn Khawlah. Also, the hadeeth about the wife of ‘Abdur-Rahmaan ibn az-Zubayr, previously married to Riffaa’ah al-Quraṭṭee who later divorced her. Her name is Tameemah bint Wahb.

Knowing Wuḥḍaan

Purpose: identifying someone who is majhool al-‘ayn and rejecting his narration if he is not a Sahaabee.

Examples:

- 1- Among the Sahaabah: ‘Urwah ibn Muḍarris from whom no one narrated except ash-Sha’bee. Also, al-Musayyib ibn Hazn from whom no one narrated except his son, Sa’eed.
- 2- Among the Taabi’een: Aboo al-‘Usharaa’ from whom no one narrated except Hamaad ibn Salamah.

Did al-Bukhaaree and Muslim collect narrations from Wuḥḍaan in the Saheehayn?

- 1- al-Haakim mentioned in al-Madkhal that they did not do so at all.
- 2- The majority of scholars of hadeeth said there are many ahaadeeth in the Saheehayn from wuḥḍaan among the Sahaabah, such as:
 - a) The hadeeth of al-Musayyib regarding the death of Aboo I_aalib, collected by both al-Bukhaaree and Muslim.
 - b) The hadeeth of Qays ibn Abee Haazim from Mirdaas al-Aslamee, stating that “The righteous people will die in succession, one after the other.” ^{al-Bukhaaree} No one narrated from Mirdaas except Qays.

Knowing Those Mentioned by Different Names or Descriptions, and Knowing Mufradaat of a Name, Kunyah, and Laqab

Those mentioned by different names or descriptions – narrator described with more than one name, laqab, or kunyah; applies to individuals or groups
Mufradaat – an individual – whether a Sahaabee, narrator, or scholar – having a name, kunyah, or laqab which no other narrator or scholar shares with him. In most cases, such mufradaat (wordings) are unfamiliar and difficult to pronounce.

Knowing Those Mentioned by Different Names

Example: Muhammad ibn as-Saa'ib al-Kalbee; some called him Abun-Nadr, some called him Hammaad ibn as-Saa'ib, and some called him and Aboo Sa'eed.

Some of its Purposes:

- 1- Avoiding confusion of variant names for the same individual and not presuming him to be several different people.
- 2- Revealing instances of tadlees ash-shuyookh

Al-Khateeb Used This Frequently With His Shuyookh:

For example, in his books he narrates from Abul-Qaasim al-Azharee, 'Ubaydullaah ibn Abil-Fath al-Faarisee, and 'Ubaydullaah ibn Ahmad ibn 'Uthmaan as-Sayrafee – all of which refer to the same person.

Knowing the Mufradaat of Names, Kunaa, and Alqaab

Purpose: Not committing tas-heef or tahreef of names having unfamiliar wordings.

Examples:

Name:

- a) Among the Sahaabah: Ahmad ibn 'Ujyaan, as in Sufyaan or 'Ulayyaan. Also, Sandar, on same pattern as Ja'far.
- b) Others: Awsat ibn 'Amr, and Durayb ibn Nuqayr ibn Sumayr

Kunyah:

- a) Among the Sahaabah: Abul-Hamraa' Hilaal ibn al-Haarith, a mawlaa of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ)
- b) Others: Abul-'Ubaydayn, whose name is Mu'aawiyah ibn Sabrah

Laqab:

- a) Among the Sahaabah: Safeenah, a mawlaa of the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ), whose name is Mihraan.
- b) Others: Mandal, whose name is 'Amr ibn 'Alee al-Ghazzee al-Koofee

Knowing Names of Those Recognized by their Kunyah, and Knowing About Alqaab

Knowing Names of Those Recognized by Their Kunyah

What is Meant: Researching names of those who are widely recognized by their kunyah in order to know the name by which they are not commonly known.

One of its Purposes: So that one person is not presumed to be two people. He may be mentioned in one instance under his real name, which is not widely known, and in another instance under his kunyah by which he is widely recognized. Hence, someone unaware of this might confuse the two.

Organization of Works on the Subject: Done in alphabetical order by kunyah, after which the real name of the person is mentioned. For example, in the chapter of the letter hamzah, Aboo Ishaaq is listed and then his name would be mentioned. In the chapter of the letter baa, Aboo Bishr is listed and then his name would be mentioned, and so on.

An Individual and His Kunyah:

- 1- His name is his kunyah and he has no other name, such as Aboo Bilaal al-Ash'aree.
- 2- He is widely known by his kunyah, and whether he had another name or not is unclear, such as the Sahaabee, Aboo Unaas.
- 3- He is given a laqab taking the form of a kunyah, while he has a name and another kunyah, such as Aboo Turaab, the laqab give to 'Alee, whose kunyah is Abul-Hasan.
- 4- He has more than one kunyah, such as Ibn Jurayj who was given the kunyah Abul-Waleed as well as Aboo Khaalid.
- 5- There are different opinions about his kunyah, such as Usaamah ibn Zayd. It is said that his kunyah is Aboo Muhammad, or Aboo 'Abdillaah, or Aboo Khaarijah.
- 6- His kunyah is known but there is difference about his actual name, such as Aboo Hurayrah. There are thirty different opinions concerning his name and his father's name, the most well-known of which is 'Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Sakhr.
- 7- There is difference about both his name and kunyah, such as Safeenah. It is said that his name is 'Umayr, Saalih, or Mihraan. It is also said that his kunyah is 'Aboo 'Abdir-Rahhmaan, or Abul-Bakhtaree.
- 8- He is widely recognized by his name and kunyah together, such as Aboo 'Abdillaah which is common to Sufyaan ath-Thawree, Maalik, Muhammad ibn Idrees ash-Shaafi'ee, and Ahmad ibn Hanbal. Also, Aboo Haneefah an-Nu'maan ibn Thaabit.
- 9- He is widely recognized by his kunyah although his name is known, such as Aboo Idrees al-Khawaanee, whose name is 'Aa'ithhullaah.
- 10- He is recognized by his name although his kunyah is known, such as Talhah ibn 'Ubaydillaah at-Taymee, 'Abdur-Rahhmaan ibn 'Awf, and al-Hasan ibn 'Alee ibn Abee Taalib; each one of whom has the kunyah Aboo Muhammad.

Knowing About Alqaab

Definition of Alqaab: Alqaab is the plural of laqab, which is any description conveying the sense of either excellence or inferiority.

What is Meant: Researching and accurately verifying the alqaab of scholars and narrators of hadeeth.

Purpose:

- 1- Avoiding the presumption that alqaab are actual names, and considering someone mentioned by his name in one instance and his laqab in another as two people while he is in fact one.
- 2- Knowing the reason behind the laqab, which may have a meaning different from what is apparent.

Types:

- 1- Impermissible: where the person given the laqab dislikes it
- 2- Permissible: where the person given the laqab does not dislike it

Examples:

- 1- ad-Daall (astray): laqab of Mu'aawiyah ibn 'Abdul-Kareem ad-Daall. He was known as such because he got lost (dalla) along the path to Makkah.
- 2- ad-Da'eef (weak): laqab of 'Abdullaah ibn Muhammad, because he was weak (da'eef) physically, not in his narration.
- 3- Ghundar: laqab of Shu'bah's companion Muhammad ibn Ja'far al-Basree. It means a troublemaker according to the dialect spoken in al-Hijaz.
- 4- Ghunjaar: laqab of 'Eesaa ibn Moosaa at-Taymee, due to the redness of his cheeks.
- 5- Saa'iqah (lightning bolt): laqab of Muhammad ibn Ibraaheem al-Haafhih; he was given this laqab due to his exceptional memorization and diligence in revision.
- 6- Mushkudaanah: laqab of 'Abdullaah ibn 'Umar al-Umawee, which means a piece of musk.
- 7- Muhayyan (made muddy): given to Aboo Ja'far al-Hadramee; he used to play with the other children when he was young and they put mud (teen) on his back.

Knowing those who are not Ascribed to their Fathers; and Knowing Ascriptions that Differ from what may be Apparent

Knowing Those Not Ascribed to Their Fathers

What is Meant: Knowing someone recognized by ascription to other than his father, whether a blood relative, such as a mother or grandfather, or a non-relatives, such as a caregiver; as well as knowing the name of his father.

Purpose: To avoid mistakenly thinking that the same person, when ascribed to his father, is someone else.

Categories and Examples:

1- Those ascribed to their mothers, such as:

- a) Mu‘aath, Mu‘awwith, and ‘Awth, the sons of ‘Afraa’, while their father is al-Haarith
- b) Bilaal ibn Hamaamah, while his father is Rabaah
- c) Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyah, while his father is ‘Alee ibn Abee Taalib

2- Those ascribed to their grandmothers, immediate or ancestral, such as:

- a) Ya‘laa ibn Munyah. Munyah is the mother of his father, Umayyah

3- Those ascribed to their grandfathers, such as:

- a) Aboo ‘Ubaydah ibn al-Jarraah. His name is ‘Aamir ibn ‘Abdillaah ibn al-Jarraah
- b) Ahmad ibn Hanbal. His name is Ahmad ibn Muhammad ibn Hanbal

4- Those ascribed to non-relatives, such as:

Al-Miqdaad ibn ‘Amr al-Kindee. He is known as al-Miqdaad ibn al-Aswad, due to his being under the care of al-Aswad ibn ‘Abd Yaghooth, who later adopted him.

Knowing Ascriptions That Differ from What May be Apparent

Purpose: Knowing ascriptions which do not reflect their apparent meaning, and knowing the reason or irregularity behind the ascription.

Examples:

- 1- Aboo Mas‘ood al-Badree: did not attend the battle of Badr, but he lived at Badr and was, thus, ascribed to it
- 2- Yazeed al-Faqeer: was not a faqeer (poor person), but he received an injury to his faqaar (spinal cord)
- 3- Khaalid al-Haththaa’: was not a haththaa’ (shoemaker), but he used to sit in their company

Knowing Tawaareekh of Narrators, and Knowing the Thiqaat Affected by Ikhtilaaṭ

Tawaareekh – Literally: dates; plural of taareekh Technically: knowing dates which accurately identify events, such as birth, death, important occurrences, etc.

Ikhtilaaṭ – Literally: corruption of the intellect Technically: corruption of intellect, and confused statements due to senility, blindness, books being burnt, etc.

Knowing the Tawaareekh of Narrators

Knowing the Thiqaat Affected by Ikhtilaaṭ

What is Meant: knowing narrators' dates of birth and death, when they heard from scholars, and when they arrived in certain places.

Importance and Purpose: determining whether the isnaad is connected or broken.

Examples:

- 1- According to the most correct opinion, the Prophet (ﷺ) and his two companions, Aboo Bakr and 'Umar, died at the age of 63.
- 2- The Prophet (ﷺ) died on the forenoon of Monday, 12th of Rabee' al-Awwal in the year 11.
- 3- Aboo Bakr died during Jumaadaa al-Oolaa in the year 13.
- 4- 'Umar died during Thul-Hijjah in the year 23.
- 5- 'Uthmaan was killed during Thul-Hijjah in the year 35, at the age of 82 or 90.
- 6- 'Alee was killed during Ramaadaan in the year 40, at the age of 63.
- 7- Hakeem ibn Hizaam and Hassaan ibn Thaabit both lived for 60 years in Jaahiliyyah, and 60 years in Islaam. They both died in Madeenah during the year 54.

Causes of Ikhtilaaṭ Among Narrators:

- 1- Senility: such as 'Aṭaa' ibn as-Saa'ib ath-Thaqafee al-Koofee
- 2- Loss of eyesight: such as 'Abdur-Razzaaq ibn Hammaam as-San'aanee
- 3- Other factors: such as 'Abdullaah ibn Lahee'ah al-Misree whose books were burnt

Ruling on Narrating from Someone Affected by Ikhtilaaṭ:

- 1- Narrations from him prior to his ikhtilaaṭ are accepted
- 2- Narrations from him after his ikhtilaaṭ are rejected; and so are those about which doubt exists regarding whether they were before or after the ikhtilaaṭ.

Importance and Purpose: distinguishing reports from a thiqah which occurred after his ikhtilaaṭ so as to reject them

Did al-Bukhaaree and Muslim collect narrations in the Saḥeeḥayn from thiqaat affected by ikhtilaaṭ?

Yes. However, the narrations included are those which are known to have been narrated prior to ikhtilaaṭ.

Knowing the Ṭabaqaat of Scholars and Narrators, as well as the Mawaalee Among Them

Ṭabaqaah – Literally: a group of people similar to each other Mawlaa – Literally: carries contrary meanings;
denotes either master or slave, and freer or freed

Technically: people similar in both age and level of isnaad, or level of isnaad alone
Technically: an ally, a freed slave, or one who embraced Islaam through another person

Knowing the Ṭabaqaat of Scholars and Narrators

Some of its Purposes:

- 1- Avoiding confusion of those with a similar name, kunyaah, etc. Knowing the Ṭabaqaah allows for distinguishing between two people who might be confused for each other due to having the same name.
- 2- Determining the real motive behind an instance of 'an'anah'.

Two narrators may belong to the same Ṭabaqaah from one angle, and different ones from another angle:

For instance, from one angle, Anas ibn Maalik and other young Sahaabah like him belong to the same Ṭabaqaah as the Ten (promised Jannah), since they are all grouped under the Ṭabaqaah of being Sahaabah. However, when considering the order in which they accepted Islaam, the Sahaabah are divided into more than ten Ṭabaqaat. In this case, Anas and his peers do not belong to the same Ṭabaqaah as the Ten.

What it Requires: being knowledgeable about narrators' dates of birth and death, as well as whom they narrated from, and those who narrated from them.

Knowing the Mawaalee Among Scholars and Narrators

Types of Mawaalee:

- 1- Mawlaa of Alliance: such as al-Imaam Maalik ibn Anas al-Aṣbaḥee at-Taymee. He is originally from the tribe of Aṣbaḥ, yet he is also considered Taymee due to the alliance of his tribe, Aṣbaḥ, with the branch of Quraysh called Taym.
- 2- Mawlaa of Manumission: such as the Taabi'ee, Abul-Bakhtaree at-Taa'ee, whose name is Sa'eed ibn Fayrooz. His master, from the tribe of Tay', set him free thus making him a mawlaa of that tribe.
- 3- Mawlaa of Islaam: such as Muhammad ibn Ismaa'eel al-Bukhaaree al-Ju'fee. His grandfather, al-Mugheerah, was a Magian who accepted Islaam at the hands of al-Yamaan ibn Akhnas al-Ju'fee; as a result, he was ascribed to that tribe.

One of its Purposes:

Avoiding confusion between individuals ascribed to a tribe by nasab (lineage) or walaa' (being an ally, manumitted slave, or accepting Islaam through a member of that tribe), especially in the case where they share the same name.

Most Renowned Works on the Subject:

Knowing the Awṭān and Buldaan of Narrators

What is meant by Waṭān and Balad: Awṭān is the plural of waṭān, and it is the area or region in which a person is born or resides. Buldaan is the plural of balad, and it is the city or village in which a person is born or resides.

One of its Purposes: Distinguishing between two individuals with the same name, if they were from two different places.

Ascriptions of the Arabs and the 'Ajam (non-Arabs):

- 1- Since ancient times, the Arabs ascribed themselves to their tribes because most of them were traveling nomads. Hence, their connection to the tribe was stronger than their connection to the land they were in. However, after Islaam, they predominantly lived in cities and villages and, thus, ascribed themselves to them.
- 2- The 'Ajam ascribed themselves to their cities and villages since ancient times.

Ascription of Someone who Relocated from One Land to Another:

- 1- If he desires to combine both places, he begins with the first then the second. It is also preferable to use the word "thumma" (then) before the name of the second place. For instance, a person who was born in Dimashq (Damascus) and later moved to Makkah would say he is "ad-Dimashqee thumma al-Makkee", and this is the method that is most prevalent.
- 2- If combining is not desired, he ascribes himself to whichever of the two he wishes; and this is not often done.

Ascription of Someone from a Subsidiary Village of a Larger Town or City:

- 1- He may ascribe himself to that village
- 2- He may ascribe himself to the town of which that village is a subsidiary
- 3- He may ascribe himself to the general region where that city is located

Example: if someone is from a place called "al-Baab" which is a subsidiary of the city Halab (Aleppo), and Halab is located in ash-Shaam, then he can say that he is al-Baabee, or al-Halabee, or ash-Shaamee.

The duration which someone must reside in a place in order to be ascribed to it: four years, according to the opinion of Ibn al-Mubaarak.

In Closing

With the help and guidance of Allaah, this work has been successfully completed and produced in this format, and I ask Allaah to allow all to benefit from it. It must be pointed out that this work, though it may contain a wide spectrum of topics, does not do away with consulting the original references. This work was put together with the objectives of abridgment, organizing ideas, and simplicity; it was not put together for the purposes of elucidation and giving an extensive, detailed treatment.

And the last of our prayers is that all praise is to due to Allaah, Lord of the worlds.
